
The Code

Appendix B – 2025

The Code

Appendix B

2025

Intro to The Books of Moses

Pretext for Appendix B - 2025

This year's notes are divided into two parts, April 2025 and August 2025. First the April part of the 2025 notes, which begins with an almost one-pager pretext for the rest, also for framing of the final tribulation, before the notes in August 2025. In two layers, to the Jew first, and also to the Greek, first BC led to AD, then AD led to Y2K, which in two layers mean that apocalyptic unveiling and the last tribulation, at the door of the seventh millennium, again and finally mean to establish the law just in time before G-d's gospel kingdom potentially can be a reality. Evils of law, legalism, paganism, imperialism, and now globalism, would precede the gospel kingdom to learn liberation from original sin.

As a short pretext for Appendix B, some details are helpful on the historical cycles with lessons learned leading to this famous quote: When everything else fail, they take you to war. The essence of this quote appears in several forms, but all build on the historical experience that man's era of idiocy has been repeated time and again with cultural, legal, and economic wars leading to military war. Totalitarianism means forced compliance. It is enough to repeat the latest reiterations, from Napoleon to Nazi troubles, and again to Agenda 2030 and the last tribulation. From the first to the fourth generation now is from the first generation to Gen Z and beyond. Decades of idiocy leading to World wars I-II, is the foundation for decoding decades of cultural war leading to Agenda 2030 and the final tribulation. People can now experience what is done and how that is done when the forces behind the scene and their serving collaborators in office put pressure on things to get what they want in the now final era of idiocy.

1789 Cultural/Legal/Economic war Military war 1945
|----------|----------|----------|----------|
1905 Repeated idiocy in office 20xx

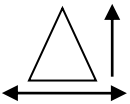
Now the generational pattern must be combined with what it means to establish the law (and legalism), now taking the evils of historical Christendom to the ultimate level. After all, that is what is expected and warned about by the end of the Bible's redemptive story now played out in real time. As things progress, especially through the third generation, it is demonstrated how change in ambition and ruling power with vertical, pro-top/down ideas, correspond to change with a steadily growing imperial expansion in the horisontal. It is fairly logical. There was no point of being a conquerer on top of the ruling pyramid of power, if there was no landscape with people and nations to be conquered. The one does not come without the other. A change in thinking about ruling and power, means a change in ideas why and how to tax people and nations. It is that easy to see through the established power play in office. If some idiot in office wanted more power, he would soon want a larger area to impose his despotic ideas, and more people to play, subjugate, and tax. There is absolutely no principal difference from the generational prelude to the Nazi Third Reich, to the prelude to the equally evil Agenda 2030 and the Fourth Reich.

M from homeland . . . .  . . . . to Empire.

Seen from a Norwegian and European perspective, a certain pressure is put on things all over, orchestrated by the (Davos) method of Public-Private partnership. While some are involved in orchestrating the war, are other groups and media involved in the marketing of it, scheming to put pressure and squeeze the minds to accept greater EU integration, now also a military union, where the despots on top of the chain need deplorable masses as cannon fodder to protect their own top-down interests. Be aware of Moses, Maslow, Marx, and other relevant codifiers of what it means to establish the law. Despots, idiots and traitors on top of the ruling power pyramid illustrate two things that always would go together as axiomatic elements. When ambitious rulers in office did seek absolutism and enforced top-down structuring, it would always come with and led to more imperial expansion. How ruling power moves upward and away from the people in the vertical, is reflected in a corresponding imperial expansion in the horisontal. EU is one example of this standard with ruling ambitious actors and parties in office repeating history. If I am the (absolute) state, the most sure proof-maker is a corresponding area expansion. If the ambition is to be god on top, the corresponding ambition is that all must submit to such a vicar deity. Antichrist's pontifical agenda 2030 equipped with tools like digital id and CBDC, means that globalism, the ultimate form of imperialism, is taken to the most extreme level both in the vertical and horisontal with ambitions to enslave all.

As things again move toward the extreme, and the ruling administration in office again is ready to enforce another era of 5% troubles, the final moral of Moses, Maslow, Marx and others, now regarding Agenda 2030 and the last tribulation, is that Christendom and the Western world never were able to learn anything of fundamental value from all the ambitious blunders of history. So, again, when the idiots are established in office, they will take you to war to prove the point, that when all other ways of enforcing their evil agenda have failed, war is their final solution. Just as the Bible did warn, in a mixture of war and rumours of war, they will try to scare people into accepting more imperial laws, a greater imperial mandate, and more totalitarian power and ruling with no limits. They need the present troubling conditions with an increasingly nervous population, stressed for the orchestrated opportunity to impose full surveillance with digital id and CBDC as a part of the plan for absolute control. For EU/ECB is October 2025 the official deadline when to expect the CBDC surveillance system. It is also official that EU now is looking into plans how to make people's private bank savings a part of EU's total war economy.

If you study the gospel implications with effect both in the vertical and the horisontal, you should come to the conclusion that first-principle justice would always be local and small scale, and therefore, that the dimensions of salvation are in place for G-d's final rescue operation when the small-scale Jewish Israel is called to the rescue of the world from the pagan empire of apocalyptic Christendom. Rescue, revival, and reformation are found between ruin and restoration. Things must again be downsized and rescaled after the imperial idiocy and pontifical pomp of pagan Christendom. All imperialism is pagan, and pontifical Christendom is no exception to that universal rule (cf. John 3:30).



Appendix B – Intro to the Law, the five books of Moses

First an intro to refresh the Laodicean state of affairs and why the essential apocalypse is about sola scriptura. The longer period from 2023 was initiated as "crisis" in banking and finance, leading to the general apocalyptic tribulation from 2025. The point with this is to know some background linking of the 70 weeks, to reform and restore everything, and particularly to know that G-d's restored good does not come without first imposing evil as the purgatorial instrument pushing for the better way of man's business on earth. Now everything gravitates around the 300 reformative sola S years from 1500 to 1800, and how the 200+ years of backsliding and decay, from the 1800s to the present, mean that people have begun to feel the weight of Lackland 2.0. What Schwab's WEF laments as uprising against the elites and his globalist Fourth Reich, should more accurately be called a reformative protest against his neo-feudal nobility. It is about deplorable masses rising up against what BIS and the orchestrators behind the banking industry would call the protected class if they manage to finish agenda 2030 and the great (neo-feudal) reset. For better understanding of the final tribulation and the war between the two concepts, Israel and the homeland on one side, and Christendom and restored medieval feudalism on the other side, the book to read is The Great Taking (2023). It is worth reading and is found online for free download. It provides some background to understand Homeland vs Lackland, what papist agencies like WEF, EU, UN, and the Bank for International Settlements (BIS) is about as the centres setting up the globalist Ponzi scheme where all the national central banks receive direction from, how to fleece all national populations and fulfil what Schwab's reset and Fourth Reich is about: You will own literally nothing and you will surely not be happy, because this is an evil of such sinister proportions that even if only the half of it is correct, it has the potential to make any citizen a murderer. Dung hill, Codex Satanicus, and the elimination of the reformation and the true Bible is the centre of deception, with surrounding economic and social elements as contributors moving everything in the same reset-reformatory direction. It is fairly simple. Before it is possible to enter G-d's potentially reconciled and peaceful seventh millennial rest, it means that to reestablish the law, before the gospel, repeats the legal Lackland struggle to impose antichrist's slavery as background for the gospel and the redeemed homeland. To stand on the first Jordan brink in Deuteronomy, on the Baptist brink AD, and on the same transitional brink Y2K, are the unified experience layer by layer through scripture. Redemptive, reformative, revived, and raptured meaning of salvation have limited value outside the epistemological canon of scripture.

Some core elements to consider here. First the coordinated flooding of Europe and the US with migrants for use as mercenaries to make chaos and destroy the free world in general, and the Protestant free world in particular. Secondly, why the primary targets to be destroyed as Protestant strongholds, are UK and the US, since they became the main drivers in reform and revival from the 1500s to 1800 and beyond. Thirdly, why it was necessary to put the same reset-reformatory pressure on these two entities to destroy the reformation as tied to the scriptural Jewish Israel, and trying to destroy the state of Israel together with the free Protestant world liberated by the sola S sceptre. Lackland 2.0, or Schwab's Fourth Reich, is the neo-feudal serfdom people all over Europe and USA have begun to feel the weight of under administration of evildoers and idiots in office, which essentially is rooted in the 1960s and 1970s when both Vatican II's Dei Verbum and the latest banking and finance regulations began to be shaped. If you "own" a property, you are only a priviledged user. The actual (Basel III) owners are protected by intermediaries designed to crash and ownership to be enforced by law, since the legislative parties at the state level have handed over the older physical paper archives, now electronic, to be confiscated collateral in the planned great reset, when you are thrown out of the property you to that day thought was your own. One of the deceptive strategies after the financial crisis in 2008 was to set the interest rate to zero and flood all areas with cheap money, causing a great inflation and a financial bubble, and people to have borrowed so much and be so heavily indebted before Covid 19, and when they decided to suddenly increase the interest rate causing the crisis and the "owners" to be forced out of their real estate. Be not fooled, it was designed to crash, and designed with so much higher limits to what could be borrowed that they knew it would lead to a crash much greater than 2008 when Basel III was first tested. It has been done so many times since 1929 that the schemers behind it knew exactly how to do it and what would be the outcome. The longer period of zero interest, inflation, and cheap money, the greater would the bubble be, and the surer would everything come crashing down upon the heads of deplorable masses ready for the transfer of wealth from the unprotected (deplorable) class to the protected class.

How the neo-feudal forces over the last decades have promoted their so-called Public-Private partnership, is a ruling element in WEF's Lackland 2.0 policy, how to restore borderless medieval structuring of society where the "elites", the neu-feudal nobility, can have full access to tax-paid purses offered by national groups running to Davos just as Revelation predicted would wonder after the beast. WEF's Public-Private partnership model is about transfer of all funds, property and property rights, from the public to the protected class in the private sphere. It is really a great mixture of useful political idiots, bureaucrats, and diplomats working as corrupt national elements over the last century, in steps aligned with the era of economic liberalisation beginning soon after World War II, more formally from the 1960s and 1970s, and shifting gears with the characteristic liberalist Willoch/Thatcher/Reagan administrations in the 1980s. Their neoliberalism, is the root of today's neofeudalism with prices and income that make people struggle while corrupt establishments enrich themselves at the people's expense. If Norway's political establishments were sane in their public responsibilities, there would be no Robek list of mismanaged municipal administrations under state supervision. Corruption and idiocy colour all spheres and all levels of administration.

In a nutshell, you should read verses like Heb 2:1-3, first written and experienced while waiting for Nero, 70AD, and the first Lackland, now repeated for the essential eisegesis of what Heb 2:3 says about Lackland 2.0, the last days, and the final tribulation, when G-d's great rescue operation is commissioned, beginning with the need to polarise the Jewish Homeland vs Christendom's Babylonian Lackland. David Rogers Webb's book, The Great Taking, will put things in perspective, how and by what motives, means, and mercenaries things are intensified in the last tribulation. Webb is one of those called by name to uncover what the networked and beast-numbered 666 (WWW) is about.

In this context it is relevant to know how the meaning of representative government has changed from the 1960s to the present. Within the bordered context independence and national sovereignty came to be as a reformed outcome, was representative government a national representation based on loyalty to national needs and the national population, not fully true, but much more real than the deceitful ruling establishment in office lately. Two generations later, with ruling deceivers settled in office, representative government means representative globalism, the same all over the western world after Schwab and his WEF establishment managed to penetrate all national cabinets in order to make them obedient vassal cabinets under the dominion of the class of ruling globalists considering themselves entitled to rule the world, fleece the masses, end all privacy, and transfer all property and property rights from the people to the powers that be, controlled by WEF's protected, neo-feudal class of stakeholders. It was characteristic that when announcing that EU/ECB is soon ready to impose CBDC and go after and ruin people's private bank savings, the announcement was also that the only parties considered (risk-taking) stakeholder are the EU Council, Commission, and Parliament. This is how the idiots in office think of themselves while ruining the people. When Schwab's WEF establishment refers to the global "stakeholders" controlling the annual Davos meeting, it is an esoteric term used about their globalist Ponzi scheme where "stake" is a risk-free reality where all the real financial risks are transferred to the people. In two generations, proportional scaling of spacetime conditions have converted representative rule from obedience to the people and nation, to obedience to globalism. No example is a better illustration than how the establishment in office handed over the national control with Norway's power grid to the globalists. G and N are two of a kind. How the German rulers in office destroyed their energy supply, and how the Norwegian rulers in office sold out Norway's energy supply, are two corresponding forms of idiocy, and they are tied to each other after handshake among idiots. Loyality in office is no longer to the national populations but to globalist powers and interests overriding the very meaning of representative government as it was instituted by reformative outcome from the 1500s to 1800+. All the national wealth built up by local strugglers, is handed over by the traitors in office to be enjoyed by Public-Private partners in the protected class. Politicians and bureaucrats work as facilitators where they themselves together with their partly private partners in plunder operate as joint beneficiaries in pillage of the nations, bloodletting state and national finances to satisfy personal greed. A better fit for today's neo-feudal Public-Private partnership, is Public-Private plunder and traitorship, and as already proven, nepotism and simony are established practice. Traitors in office can use tax-paid money to pay for an international position when their national career is coming to an end, and the further away from the local sphere these decisions are made, the freer can nepotism and simony be done. Thus, neofeudalism is so explicitly designed according to medieval ideology that it deserves its Lackland 2.0 title. People's taxpaid public property is plundered by private business corporations, directors and CEOs assisted by corrupt politicians and bureaucrats helping them doing it. ACER legislation and neo-feudal administration of Norway's power grid makes such a great example how the establishment in office helped the globalist mafia plunder the nation and make people pay for it by mismanagement and electricity bills more than ten times the production cost. Norway's national naivety makes such a perfect model of a vassal state with servile officials ready to plunder the people, using public property and also private property rights to please international institutions and globalist interests. Orwellian reality takes society far beyond anything Quisling and his generation of the protected ruling and plunder class ever could have imagined to do. Every time an imperial era came to its end and crumbled under the weight of its own rottenness, it was another heyday for the traitors in office. The main difference today is the media-based world order the ruling establishment must control and censure in order to stay in office. But the ruling class would never be able to hide everything, so the essential apocalypse includes much evidence on display and globally mediated for the whole world to know things that would be mostly unknown to the public before World wars I-II.

Two noticeable parallels about globalism and imperialism when idiots and traitors are in office. First that internal and external conflicts develop together, and they develop each other. Military conflicts between countries or groups of countries, are conflicts growing together with a national potential of civil war. Another side of the picture is that while UN became a party of disunited nations using UN instrumentally to boost personal and national ambitions and provoke conflicts on the global scene, it became the same story with internal political disorder at the national level all over the world. Growing national disorder is universal and takes place everywhere. Globalist ideology destroys the nations internally and makes international chaos, and is partly planned to do that.

Some other elements to consider in this context is that, just like Holocaust and the Nazi regime, is antichrist's global iron/clay dominion a clerk design where the ecumenic, the economic, private corporations, bankers, politicians, lawyers, and state bureaucrats are involved all over the world. It is legislative, judicial, and media is involved in censorship (AI), trying to keep the masses ignorant and obedient to minimise the protest, while the rulers in charge are ready to impose their inquisition 2.0 against any individual or group not willing to comply. With Y2K on top of AD, the final days of antichrist could just as well be called the days of Judas. Conspiracy and treason are universal and global and no longer hidden. How the religious-political is integrated repeats how the Reichskonkordat mindset in the 1930s operated as a ruling traitor mindset. Today's political establishment is full of Chamberlains: Peace for our time. Peace, peace, when there is no peace. So, political treason, economic treachery, conspiracy, and deception go together with all the relativist idiocy of healing reformative wounds for the reintegration of church and state. This is for Norway a continually developing hedonism and syncretism, a next gear shift after the 2012 milestone when the Constitution's articles 1-2+ were changed for restored pluralist paganism now putting syncretic pressure on things all over the West. With the idiots as legislators, their new laws are no other than legal omens of what to come.

With rising corruption and mismanagement, one of the elitist entitlements is a salary 10-100 times the average of the new serf class, while the growth of the national, state debt is increasing, also for Norway. Like the rest of the western world, would the growing state debt also in Norway follow the post-1971 pattern in the US. As a planned part of the great taking, must all nations share the same debt-building. There was no reason for Norway's state finances to need a national debt 50% of the yearly budget, but the rulers in office have since the 1960s been partakers in the ongoing international Ponzi scheme eventually to transfer all wealth to the protected class and all debt to the deplorable class by the planned reset. It is not only that you will own nothing. You will be indebted with no way out, and if they manage to impose digital identity and CBDC, you will be totally enslaved. Bordered nations ruled under the administration of their respective authorities, and set up for the primary purpose to protect borders and the people's freedom, privacy, and property rights, are constitutionally turned upside down and used by the globalists in the plundering Public-Private Ponzi partnership scheme to strip the people of all their rights. They reverse the only reasonable purpose in setting up the free nation state. With the bankers, politicians, bureaucrats, and media working as obedient puppets running to Davos, Brussels, Basel, and New York, and eager, ambitious and more than willing to be servile implementers of new enslaving directives, the meaning of neo-feudalist vassal states has grown in scope but still according to how the Nazi clerk regime worked.

To demand a salery of 10-100 times the average working class is in itself to manifest the Ponzi motive behind a hierarchical society with the poor at the bottom thought of with disgust as deplorables by those on top. Such a salery level is in itself a manifestation of lost human value. For society moving away from the egalitarian, back into hierarchical structuring, there is no principal difference from how Atlantic slave traders dealt with their cargo, to how today's top predators are disgusted by the downtrodden deplorables worthy of minimum wage. There may be a certain difference in scaling of proportions, but no difference in principle. Earlier slave traders and today's protected class, vs earlier slaves and today's poor strugglers, is a repetition of the characteristics of hierarchy and brute servitude. Stakeholders demanding their own people to own nothing, have no more regard for human life than the earlier slave traders. All these evils will not end until they are equated. If some lesser evils are tolerated, must also the greater evils be continued. Neo-feudalism builds on Satan's hierarchical church model intended to include only the ruling 5% priesthood of Satan, the rest not found worthy to be anything but a labouring source of revenue. How Y2K repeats AD, makes WEF's counter-reformatory Agenda 2030 the second Pontifex Maximus orchestration where all the world is forced to have a fully transparent digital id and register for imperial taxation, to own nothing, and for the glorious gain of ruling paganism under a Romanist pontiff, which is antichrist, the vicar of Christ. Since theology is the greatest replacement ideology of all time, the greatest of all historical evils, and the greatest maker of legalism and servitude, there is no reason not to be blunt. Before entering G-d's millennial kingdom, and peace is made manifest, must tribulation and persecution continue until the Bishop of Rome becomes antichrist emeritus. Lucifer's pontifical laurels are Satan's honorary memorial.

Covid 19 was partly planned and partly an opportunity. Next global virus could increase WHOs power, cause more rules and the next push for a global digital id. WEF's needed cyber attack is partly planned and partly a next opportunity to impose more totalitarian rules. AI is a great instrument to control internet and use the net to enforce more control as expected within Orwell's 1984 framework. World wars I-II were ordered, to become the next economic and repressive opportunity to strip masses of people of their gold and wealth in the transfer of world dominion from the British imperial era to the post-war and American imperial era. Ongoing wars are partly planned and partly opportunities to spread more fear and implement more control. Migration into Europe and USA is partly planned and partly an opportunity to destroy free nations and keep people so occupied with social and cultural issues that they have no spare time and energy left to protest. Economic disaster is partly planned and partly an opportunity to enforce digital id and CBDC. Numerous disasters would be partly planned and partly opportunities never to be wasted but would be used to force people into obedience. The more evil orchestrated, coordinated, and manifested, the harder it is to argue that it is conspiracy theories. The last days was a prediction of evil and evildoers in office and in the streets. Based on the earlier mindset, ruling totalitarianism comes back as a restored "divine right" to rule as the kings in the pre-Napoleon era when they acted as royal puppets under papal control. A reformation reset must bring back everything that was taken down from 1500 to 1800. With the latest WHO pandemic preparedness agreement, draft finished 16 April 2025, expected to be adopted by May 2025, is the latest globalist health regime ready for the tribulation. Some call it a pact. It is a masterpiece of double communication. After some pushback, the WHO has officially announced that it will respect national sovereignty in public health decisions and that nothing in the new agreement gives WHO the authority to mandate health measures such as lockdown, vaccination campaigns or border closure. If that was so, why the rest of the announcement that it is legally binding. After finishing the binding "preparedness" part, they will need no formalities for the rest. With a global army of clerks and collaborators at the national level, it can be enforced informally as a gentleman's agreement, or by threats from higher globalist levels. After reading some of the comments, it is obvious that this new deal and its intention stand on the shoulders of Covid 19, now using the quantity of persons killed in 2020-22 as a threat to enforce the next step. Next global pandemic will be the next planned occasion to test how far the nations will comply freely with their global health despotism, and how much more can be enforced with an army of national collaborators in office loyal to the globalist plot.

Next element to understand is spacetime scaling of proportions in decay, from the first to the fourth generation, how the weird in process of time becomes tangible while truth must become error, and it is no longer possible to settle disputes without violence, now repeating how the Nazi clerk mindset, partly cynical and partly lukewarm, careless and ignorant, was developed. With Norway's increasingly corrupt establishment as example, it leaks out from the protected ruling class, both from political state officials and CEOs of state-owned and privately owned corporations how disgusted the 5% establishment is with the deplorable class at the bottom of the food chain. Some do openly express that people must learn to suffer, must learn pain, must accept that energy is expensive etc. This is the entitled, totalitarian mindset which during the third-generation preparation of the financial crash is ready and more than willing to send their deplorables into war as cannon fodder to protect the same Ponzi scheme in continuation from the fourth-to-first generational reset. Third generation in office are the coming ruling narcissists, despots, and servile clerks of entitled brats in development. After proving their outspoken hatred of the masses, their own people and population they are working to replace by planned mass migration, as disgusted third-generation deplorables, they will of course have no problem with sending them to war as protective cannon fodder and 5% fence around the protected class. As expressed in The Great Taking, today's ongoing mixed proxy and hybrid war is a total warfare directed against all national populations, to destroy national borders, destroy all privacy and property rights, and restore a borderless, now neu-feudal society. As a globalist plot, the most challenging part is how to manage to do it in the earlier free Protestant Europe and USA where the Bible has been sola S liberator. Now repeating the nihilist days of Westcott, Hort, and Bismarck's pre-war kulturkampf, the manipulated conditions around the Bible points to Codex Satanicus as the core and the editorial necessity to take the true Bible away in order to reset the reformation.

The Bible and its sola S mission must be eliminated, the reformation must be reversed, all borders must be removed, and all free nations must be subjugated. People's privacy and property rights must be wiped out, people's economy must be destroyed, and total medieval structuring and servitude in the revenue-making serf class must be restored.

In all study of military intelligence and deception, especially from the 1500s when the Jesuits launched the counter-reformatory campaign against the Bible and Protestantism, one book does repeatedly show up, Sun Tzu's The Art of War, which in essence is how to develop strategy, apply tactics, create distraction and deception, use mercenaries and proxies, and win wars without having fired one shot. It is most effective when managing to orchestrate internal chaos and implosion without being present and directly involved. The essence in intelligence is to know the enemy and how he operates. The art of war seems to be the deceiver's bible. Anyway, proxy and hybrid wars would be increasingly challenging to execute since things must surface and cannot forever be hidden secrets. The 30-years war was the outcome after the first reformative kulturkampf in the 1500s, Napoleon dethroning the Pope ended the next wave of kulturkampf. Today is the Woke and the weird another mental warfare as the final layer upon the era of Westcott, Hort, Nietzsche, and Bismarck.

If you know how medieval social structuring was set up and worked, and how the serf class were chained to their local place by birth, that is the background for understanding the elitist planning of their 15-minute cities controlled by kings, priests, and nobility, all based on a totalitarian state under the moral supervision of Pope and Magisterium. With digital id and CBDC is full surveillance secured, and there will be no need to send any inquisitor since digital id and currency is more than enough to enforce mass obedience. Any individual rising up in protest will be digitally locked out of his accounts with no right to protest or argue his case, and it is simple to do such remote operations from an office hidden somewhere, receiving reports that this or that individual needs to learn his lesson and be forced to obey. It protects perpetrators and clerks never having to face the horror of remotely controlled harassment. Just like drone war, it is easier to push buttons if you never see the effect. This is the new ugly face when universal papal jurisdiction and universal UN jurisdiction operate hand in hand as two ruling parallel supra-national jurisdictions above the heads of the people after having abolished all national borders and all real human rights. Ecumenism and economy join their forces in this context by the digital technology and networking serving the horror Orwell was warning against. Media belongs to the servile party of willing clerks and commentators. In the same sense as the establishment in general voice their hatred of deplorable masses, does media voice their concern that it is much more challenging to fulfil their role as gatekeepers filtering what the establishment wants people to know. If no conspiracy was ongoing, and protest and critique was nothing but conspiracy theories, there would presumably be no need for such concerns. Critical journalism is dead. Media are protective gatekeepers and cheer-leaders of despotism. Goebbels is revived with the rest of the totalitarian. Every year are the globalist WEF rulers in Davos manifesting man's boundless hubris of ambition put on display for the world to observe the pinnacle of arrogance and stupidity in the era it was foretold would manifest the presently ongoing great falling away. While conspiring parties bring forth the fruits of their own scheming, they will not forever be able to hide behind the lie that all the protesters standing up against them are moved by conspiracy theories. While being pushed back into the medieval swamp, does counter-enlightenment and counter-reform produce a great variety of conspiracies and counter-measures against the free world that was liberated from such. It is all as expected and foretold according to the Bible's prophetic blueprint. So-called misinformation and disinformation causing the ruling establishment to feel the need to rebuild "trust", are examples of projection. They turn reality upside down and project the actual conspiracy back onto the opposition in the same way the actual medieval heretics used words like sect and heresy to smear their protesting opponents. While Schwab has argued the need for his Fourth Reich, and his protective apparatus has worked to whitewash history, he is nothing but a neo-feudal emperor now standing naked but in denial of being exposed by canonical epistemology. Economists have long warned that the financial derivatives market linking all banks and finances, is a weapon of mass destruction. Laws, Basel III, digital id and CBDC provide the means and the scale factor that made this financial weapon a programmable precision weapon of mass destruction, and as known historically, all weapons made, would also be used. So, there is no reason to put any trust in globalist rulers begging to be trusted. Those working with and defending their Globalist/Romanist WEF/UN/EU/BIS+ agenda 2030 represent a structural umbrella everything unfolds under.

You may wonder if a 15-minute city should be called a 15-minute concentration camp. In Schwab's Fourth Reich the camp is only a larger area than in the Third Reich. If they were able to use AI and force all to accept programmable hybrid brains, you might even freely accept living within the confines of their ESG utopia. With all parties integrated, it would take the earlier form of collectivism, communism, and national-socialism to the next, globalist-socialist level. In the Third Reich the Nazi elite would dictate what could be done and the premises for all business, cultural and economic. In Schwab's Fourth Reich, that would be no different. All chains of command are planned to unite under the all-encompassing dictatorship of the digital ESG economy. Environmental, Social, and Governmental, speak of total governance, that separation of powers, and the separation of the state from the church, are reversed. ESG rulers will own you, body and soul.

EU's digital service act (DSA), in effect from 2024, should be called what it is, digital surveillance act, or simply, the Goebbels Act. In the Fourth Reich it is the digital version repeating how Goebbels and the Third Reich got total Nazi control with all media. What could be published and by who, of regime-friendly propaganda, and what and who were denied access, were fully in the hands of the regime. The main difference today is that in the Fourth Reich are all media, internet services, and host providers making up a much larger, digital surveillance and propaganda apparatus than in the days of Goebbels. By law will the ruling globalists seek to enforce control with all digital platforms for total control and full surveillance with all connection points to the internet, and they will use vicar arguments like safety, security, and human rights as excuses to enforce what they want. Historical steps leading to the days of Goebbels and Quisling in the 1930s is taken to the next level and layer four generations later. Again it is an era of idiots, traitors, and despots, not only trying to end free speech but end all forms of freedom. Just like things going repressive and ugly from the third generation after Napoleon, the third generation and growing kulturkampf after the Nazis is no different. EU aggression means a billion fine against X to force Musk to comply with DSA, the new censure and surveillance act. All platforms must comply, censure, and do surveillance as wanted by the Fourth Reich.

Norway's government and propaganda minister Jaffery are eager to implement the new dystopian laws, and are more than ready to police media on matters of mis- and dis-info, to censure what should and should not be reported, and how to campaign against threats to the establishment. Restored papal control with propaganda ministrers to oversee the inquisition and impose repressive censorship and media control are some of the stinking elements of neo-feudalism. It would be convenient for the establishment to impose on all a programmable hybrid brain that could switch off or mute man's senses. Full numbness would be problem solved. Leading globalists do more or less openly state their position, how they work to abolish free speech, take away freedom, rights, end all private propery rights for ordinary people, and how they do lawfare to shut down protesters and silence negative feedback that would have to come against the globalist establishment and their agenda. US democrats tried lawfare to keep Trump and Vance out of office, continued in 2025. In Europe the office holders are so far more successful. Germany banning and isolating AfD, supported by an aggressive EU, overturning election in Romania (2024), also backed by an aggressive EU, and in France using lawfare to hinder Le Pen (2025) from being elected, and using pressure against Hungary, Poland ect., for not willing to comply with the imperial EU dictatorship. Lucifer's totalitarian ideas and leftist lawfare are as old as the brain. The Jesuit agenda, championed by politicians like John Kerry, do openly attack the First Amendment as a direct hinderance for the political establishment to do what they want. Saying that the First Amendment is a major block against needs to stop dis- and mis-info, it is more important to know where such statements come from than the words themselves. Lucifer's mind in office projects and propagates a presumed public problem while making himself an enemy of the people. Just like the Norwegian establishment has said for decades, we can no longer control what people know and the info they have access to, it is steadily more clear that Schwab's great reset is an intent to revoke all the freedoms that came with the reformation.

There is nothing new in the WEF doctrine of total theft that was not already papist and Jesuit ideology. It is the evil these guys in their social teaching call the common good. Everything private must go, especially the Protestant private, all individualism must go, and each individual must sacrifice the personal and private for the common good, now a globalist good, including a forced let go of all private property rights, the next reason for calling WEF's agenda 2030, aligned with papist and Jesuit ideology, Lackland 2.0, based on the papist drive to destroy Protestantism and the right of private interpretation and private judgment. It was predictable what would come with the papist Lackland 2.0.

After seemingly disappearing in the early 1800s, the build-up from Vatican I to World war II and Holocaust was the first Jesuit comeback with a vengeance. From Vatican II to agenda 2030 and antichrist's iron/clay reign, this is taken to the next level. Globalism must be seen from a Roman Catholic point of view. As perpetual Lackland-makers, the papists and Jesuits could not accept Herzl's idea of a Jewish homeland, and now at the next level no globalist can accept the more universal demand for a national homeland. On the political arena it is no longer so much about Left vs Right, but globalists against nationalists. Borderless medieval imperialism with puppet ruling structures under papal despotism is the only workable framing for how to decode present affairs, and it works according to Daniel's generational timetable having the last tribulation on the horizon.

Neofeudalism restoring the patriarchal state means that legislative measures enforced to end man's free speech, and man's freedom in general, are enforced by totalitarian minds in office acting a parental rulers with authority to punish all citizens as childeren of the parental state after reintegrating the medieval, patriarchal church-state. Just like the new police state now acts repressively as inquisitor in regulating what the parents can say to their child in matters of gender dysphoria, are the state generally restoring the medieval conditions of being a patriarchal guardian of a subjugated people stripped of all rights to think, speak, and act for themselves. Antichrist's era is the era of a restored papal brute.

2024 was the year WEF as a papist agency really put Palestine on the agenda. First the annual meeting in January, then the WEF's special Riyadh Palestine meeting in April, and the outcome in May 2024. It suited the actors behind the scene that the "protestant" Norway should be the first to announce that Palestine was recognised. If you look up a global map over all UN member states that did recognise Palestine, it is a map showing how far today's ongoing counter-reformation and missional implosion have progressed. Norway's Palestine announcement came with a boost of self-importance, that if Israel's prime minister should arrive in Norway he would have to be arrested. Norway's minister of foreign affairs in 2024 could not hide his joy over possibly being able to do the arrest of Israel's prime minister if he should visit Norway. Be assured that no Jewish official will have any interest in visiting Norway's antisemitic establishment. Espen Barth Eide has made himself one of the high ranked fools in foreign affairs. Indeed, no Israeli prime minister still sane would visit Norway's corrupt regime, especially today's generation of WEF puppets Schwab's Fourth Reich used to penetrate the cabinets. These idiots want to rule the world, and international law and courts are the instruments to do it. It is never about Palestine and the Palestinians. They are disposable, calculated casualties just like the rest. For the ruling perpetrators behind the scene it is about world dominion, reaching certain milestones while moving closer to Armageddon. Antichrist, the vicar of Christ, needs to wipe out the reformed residue in Europe and USA, for all the world under the papist UN to be pro-Palestinian as long as that serves the intended goal, until the whole global map may have the same colour. Then no reformed area will remain, the Jewish Israel will be gone, the true Bible will be gone, and the essentially papist agenda 2030 will have finished what Holocaust left unfinished. Maybe Norway's government should arrange another liner, name it Donau II, and give the remaining Norwegian Jews one last free ride to Israel for all to be there for Armageddon.

A fully capitalised, neo-feudal world order with internet under control, and with digital identity, passport, health certificate, and CBDC, the ruling elements in Orwell's horror get real. This is what the neo-feudal nobility (elites) want. You will own nothing, and they will own you, be happy, and deal with the people as a mass serf class living more or less as artificial robots in 15-minute cities under total surveillance. When things get real, it is no coincidence that masses forced into obedience is a matter of ownership, just like servitute and slavery were organic matters of ownership. Organic end-time organisation around P is patriarchal structuring around a vicar soul. In organic P matters a people's protest is an early stage of wrath. P's propaganda ministers will label it disinformation and misinformation, projecting reality back onto the people while the massive evidence of systemic corruption and manipulation no longer can be unknown secrets. An organic and fully capitalised world order under AI-supported, digital control, is the ultimate case of the survival of the fittest, just like the first feudal era was. Together with antichrist it is the repressive opposite of the free gospel kingdom on earth, and not surprisingly since organic ownership of the cattle class is the upside-down version of G-d's host property model coming with Abraham's mission in Gen 14. Antichrist's way to full subjugation of Europe and the US manifests Christendom's Bible-perverting, utter moral depravity and moral bankruptsy. Banking built itself up as a business of its own during the era of the Atlantic slave trade. CBDC together with the rest of the digital toolkit to control the world, means to make the economy of slavery universal and global. In the same sense as the religious-ecumenical whore riding a secular-economic beast, the new ruling class of the global oligarchy will ride the residue of personal and economic independence. After hundreds of years of economic development for the liberation of each individual person, the system is rigged for total control and to be exploited by its ruling emperors. Just like the Third Reich was "democratically" elected, and accepted, Schwab's Fourth Reich is no different, only much better equipped to be able to execute their savage plan.

In the midst of apocalyptic turmoil, must the last tribulation be a mental imperial swamp where China wants Taiwan, Russia wants Ukraine, and Christendom's fallen western empire, now mixed US-European, expects to continue its role as moral policeman and global state inquisitor. All these carnal drives merge in the wars of land and sea routes in the middle east, all under the conflicting jurisdiction of UN mixed with papal control. Universal jurisdicton has two major ruling elements, global UN jurisdiction, and global episcopal jurisdiction, both and in combination expecting to impose their reintegrated church-state will-power universally upon all areas and citizens. It is the old carnal drive of the surviving fittest pushing the world toward Armageddon. Complete neo-feudalism with a Romanist Pope and puppets might be called the Holy Global Empire. You should take a serious look at the UN symbol with its Roman laurels. Sinking deeper into the pagan mud, it should not take too long before some committed papist in the UN system would say that the universal jurisdiction and divine right to rule held by the medieval Roman Emperors, beyond imperial borders and to the end of the world out of Europe, have been restored and divinely rescaled with the Global UN Empire. How the Roman pontiff is playing with his titles and desire to be the global Pontifex Maximus and global Bishop of Rome, is a shared mindset in papist circles, behind international institutions, and in the UN system. With such pagan ideas becoming universal and global, would the two branches of the now globally reintegrated churchstate boost and protect each other's universal jurisdiction. Antichrist's global iron/clay realm would be complete with this twofold jurisdiction, and would manifest how UN and the US are tied to Europe and the occult, obelisk-oriented Rome. In next term, with a newly elected UN Secretary-General, from 2027, may all the control measures needed for total surveillance of the apocalyptic beast be in place as planned to fulfil the conspired sustainability horror of Agenda 2030. So, just as some already have experienced, war against the beast in the final tribulation means the people's partly national war against a great mixture of globalist, religious, political, and public policy backed by laws, courts, and the police state. Election of the next UN Secretary-General will be UN's so far greatest globalist puppet show.

Rebuilding of medieval papalism did obviously require much historical revisionism and whitewashing, because wherever Roman Catholicism were allowed to grow would state despotism never be far away. One of the big drivers behind the papist/Jesuit/UN-driven mass migration programs into Europe and the US, primarily into the Protestant UK and USA, is not only to destroy Protestantism, but for the sake of historical whitewashing to systematically wipe out the characteristic and historically well-documented differences between the Catholic south and the Protestant north. One part of this papist/Jesuit/UN master plan with flooding Europe and UK with muslims from the south, and USA with catholics from the Latin and South America, is to wipe out the historically characteristic differences Catholic institutions have been embarrased over for more than 200 years. Wherever the papists were allowed to come and colour society with their mixed ideas of papalism and infantilism, it would be destructive for the culture, for social stability, and national wellbeing and productivity. To wipe out Protestantism, partly replace all people of the north, and make all societies look the same and be equal in corruption and crime, would serve multiple purposes, and would wipe out the evidence of the visible problems manifested wherever the Catholic culture was the majority culture, never influenced by reformative change. In their eager to hide the truth and all the embarrassing differences between Catholicism and Protestantism, the minds behind the great papist/Jesuit/UN-driven mass-migration plan do not only prove that they favour a culture of poorer and more primitive quality, but how the theological minds again prove that they historically and today are willing to send the world to hell as long as they can maintain their despotic positions. It is called the priesthood of Satan because their missional motives are proven by action historically and epistemologically. By their fruit ye shall know them. Papalism is the centre of corruption, crime, violence, and war, and it is the area where the mafia would develop inside and outside the church. For the Nth time, papalism rising is again to prove that the theological mafia is still willing to send the whole world to hell for self-protective reasons and for the glory of antichrist, the vicar of Christ. Anything that was closer and looked closer to G-d's gospel kingdom would be a threat to the evildoers in the Vatican and would have to be exterminated, evidence to be wiped out, and histories removed from the libraries and no more to the seen. Be not surprised by the fact that the growing pressure against the reformation and against Israel is the same old pressure, and is driven by the same satanic wrath and war against G-d's plan. Historical revisionism, whitewashing, and wiping out historical, cultural, and populated national evidence have been a massive program running, especially after Vatican II. As one historian noted in the 1800s after 500 years of horror in Piedmont, when the papists gave up their repeated attempt to wipe out the Waldenses, one of their last clean-up operations to remove loose ends was the registered records in the British libraries in UK. Waldensian history could no longer be found. Greater campaigns since Vatican II is whitewashing of church-state relations from Vatican I to Holocaust, especially new books written about the imperial Roman church-state relations in the 1930s and 1940s.

In this context belongs Papal projection and the restoration of the Roman Empire, first a League of Nations following the ending of the British Empire and from 1948 the greater UN Puppet show following the US empire and build-up of globalist ruling of all world affairs from behind veil. Apocalyptic unveiling is most relevant in the ending Laodicean period when the Jesuit operations went underground after Napoleon dethroned the Pope. Revisionism, historical whitewashing, and veiled end-time operations are parts of the last chapter of deception. Revisionism has been done with a great variety. One representative example of whitewashing is the book, Hitler's Pope (1999), written by a papist historian. Peeling back all the deceptive layers of manipulative writing, self-protective projection, globalist puppet show, the general whitewashing of history etc., the actual or naked book title should have been, The Pope's Hitler or The Pope's puppet. While moving towards Agenda 2030 and Armageddon, the final unveiling of the UN puppet show set up as the present historical layer, after Vatican II, means no change but repeats how things were orchestrated from Vatican I to Holocaust. The point with revisionist books flooding the global market is to distract, create distance, downplay the severity of evil matters, and somehow, at least partly, admit that something was not good and should really have been handled better, making it sound plausible that the distance was much greater than actual between church and state, and manipulate the facts to such a degree that all direct ruling and collusion in history's most evil plot is removed from the historical records. Satan's orchestrated puppet show is a scene mentally and organically divorced from reality. If you study Pinocchio, the orchestrating protagonist player and supporting propeller, you may have a better understanding of papal projection, and the world's globalist plot and puppet show assigned with a variety of organic roles in this pretentious masquerade.

As whitewashing and wiping out history and culture go on, the question from 1588 rises itself: What should be the purpose with the English language? Should the new world be English and reformed or Spanish and Catholic? You would have no war of independence in the imperial Catholic south under papal control. With the changes done over the last decades, until 2025, it looks like the multitude of migrating armadas flooding both UK and USA managed to do what the Spanish Armada could not do in 1588 to regain papal control. After completed whitewashing, counter-reform, total missional implosion, the authorized KJV removed as protector of the reformation and the international realm, and history and reformed cultere wiped out, is everything up for grabs just as the surviving-fittest orchestrators so far know very well. As one vital part of today's kairos moment and foretold tipping point, is the English language in the balance of history. Should the providential English be the people's networked lingua franca, or should it be an empty vehicle, drained of its original purpose, and instead be a convenient instrument to serve the Codex Satanicus mission. Latin ideas may be revived and ride English as the whore rides the beast. English in the balance is just as important as whether the WWW should be the people's liberating network, or the establishment's 5% instrument of repression. As many Europeans have known the last 50 years, what the Third Reich could not do by military conquest, would the Fourth Reich and its deceitful establishment plan to achieve in a much more sneaky way. Use and abuse of the English language in communicative action is just as much in the balance as agenda 2030 itself, and in the same partly lingual agenda is USA's foundation. Is it the reformed Washington or the Jesuit Georgetown? It is hard to say. Awaiting that sorted, what is the fruit thereof? Whatever G-d planned and provided for, also by making English the protective champion of the reformation, would the Vatican and other copycats try to exploit for serving their vicar ambitions. Be aware that the sum of all abomination, in The Code called the abomination of de-sola S, is that the Bible and everything provided for, vested in scripture, were turned upside down and used to serve interests working directly against G-d's intended mission plan. His wrath is not that he is concerned with exterior worship forms, but what drives them and how and by what means and methods they were put in place to serve antichrist's agenda. So, while being on the road to Armageddon, be aware that it is just as important to wipe out everything that came with the reformation, especially the English role as international protector of reform and world liberation, as it is to finish the unfinished Holocaust. In the true Bible, the point is that the missional gospel equals the lingual gospel. Reform and redemption are lingual and educational by dimensional design. Nebuchadnessar's image is not limited to metals but to be about language, people, and nations. Coming to the foot section is to realise how purgatorial pottery would form and reform all clay, in the end to rebel and reform or to be ruined under the heel of Rome. Nebuchadnessar's image refers to the historial head vs heel drama from Gen 3:15 to the end of time.

Long before 2025 would history be mostly forgotten, and a company of revisionists and whitewashers would work systematically for it to be forgotten. The reformers, Luther and Tyndale, knew the evil they were up against, and the founding fathers that wrote the constitutions of the western world around 1800 knew the evil they were up against when they instituted the separation of powers to be helpful in the rescue of the state from the church and papal despotism. In time, after the Council of Trent, would the papists and Jesuits find that they would have to replace the authorized KJV as the one international protector of the reformation, of the international realm, and of the English lingua franca, given to the people. This would require two international campaigns, beginning with UK and the US. From the early 1800s it began actively, but secretly and discreetly, with the Oxford Movement, instigating counter-reform inside the Anglican UK, transforming the universities, and instigating the work to revise the KJV and have it replaced as planned with the coordinated RV in UK and the ASV in USA, for no other reason than to put the KJV out of business since it had become such a powerful obstacle to the papist agenda. At the same time would they begin the work to build international institutions with legal and judicial capacities. From two coordinated international sectors working in parallel would the new world order under Codex Satanicus be enforced. National and missional translation committees would receive all their dung and religious directives from a body outside national borders, and the national political cabinets and institutions would take their orders from UN, EU, WTO, WHO, BIS etc., fooling all nations to take orders from higher, international bodies while keeping the people in ignorance. Subjugated national churches and states would receive the new, neo-feudal orders from two coordinated and coordinating centres of the same kind, essentially the same mission, while those behind the scene orchestrating Lackland 2.0 and the reintegration of the church-state would be laughing at the instituted separation of powers at lower, national level soon to be ended. All would be under total control and full surveillance, and all would wonder after that apocalyptic beast, ecumenic, economic, cultural, social, lingual, religious, and political. The older Latin whore would even exploit the providential English language as the new communicative instrument, riding for free and bridling the international beast. In the end it means simply that international law and courts set up to serve the neo-feudal empire of the globalists became the instruments to destroy the people's free nations, and how to build Antichrist's borderless Carnal Global Empire. Finishing the unfinished Holocaust, and destroying the remaining residue of the reformation, Satan's universal jurisdiction means global enforcing of law, full divine right of the UN emperor to reign totally under moral supervision of the universal jurisdiction of the pontifical Rome.

As apostasy manifests how the apocalyptic masses have wondered after the beast, certain parallels are noticeable. While the mental WEF monsters are gathering and celebrating their ambitious plans for the world, is antisemitism surging. Around a centre of growing violence and antisemitism, the theological Codex Satanicus establishment is working to pervert the Bible, and the political establishment is disgusted by their own populations. Human beings have no value in any administrative quarter. WEF's monster plan for the world is indeed a clerk design in the way Holocaust was a clerk design. The monsters in charge and their obedient bureaucrats serving them, are no-less brainless, servile minds than those serving the same development until Holocaust was done. WEF and the yearly Davos is the playground and kindergarten for these mental monsters ruling the masses wondering after such a monstrous beast. If the world was already fully hybrid and AI-driven, it was maybe realistic, but under dominion of still ordinary brains, it is insanity on display. All the mixed antisemitic and reset-reformatory operators contributing to put total apostasy on display, contribute to put total insanity on display.

Be aware that when globalist insiders refer to the proverbial "they" and what "they" may do and permit, or "they" will not do and not permit, it is a reference to the hidden rulers that actually directs the nations from their unseen office. They are not on the platform in Davos. Those present and seen, Schwab and his disciples, like Brende and Barth Eide, are mainly visible front figures and puppets and are disposable together with the rest of the world. It is the same with Schwab's Young Global Leaders. Most of them are useful idiots that can be disposed of as waste when they have completed WEF's goal.

WEF and Agenda 2030 is not only about the end of all national sovereignty and national independence. It is the end of personal independence. Be aware that real human rights began with respecting each individual as a free being having a free space around himself no person or institution was allowed to infringe. The fantastic forgery of the globalists is to impose their legalistic version of "human rights" in parallel with removing all the real human rights which had no other basis than law-free and civilised behaviour. The only group that would benefit from international law and "human rights" are the criminal and the corrupt and big business. WEF and Agenda 2030 are monuments over man's legal incompetence at a scale the world never before did experience. Restored serfdom means restored slavery where the powers that be exercise their possessive property rights over human beings stripped of real human rights. All personal freedom of the new serf class must be sacrificed to serve the "common good", the system, the ruling despots, and their protected class. Those preparing and setting up such a system, regardless of scale, must have a correspondingly despotic thinking about the poor deplorables they plan to impose it on. So, no surprise that the verified drop in intelligence level from 1968 to the present woke university mindset would be developed to such a tangible level of insanity and lost mental capacity. Agenda 2030 does really belong to the era of the brute.

Ruling bodies eager to impose digital id and a programmable CBDC for full surveillance of all, like to present the case as how we now think differently about money. These guys will not admit that the actual change in thinking is not about money but how despotism has another thinking when it comes to the meaning of property and people's privacy and property rights. Digital id and CBDC are the technological instruments to get what they want according to their savage estimation of value. When the mental proportions have been reset to zero value, and all intrinsic human value also has been zeroed, everything is profitable. Antichrist's iron/clay world order and agenda 2030 put Sodom, servitude, Gen 14, and the need for Abraham's rescue mission back on track.

Today is a repetition of nihilism and the kulturkampf from the period of Bismarck. It is a repetition of the same weird mentality, that before coming to the days of Quisling and the Nazis, the same deceitful mindset would creep into most institutions, characteristic for the entitled brats in office today. Long before the great taking may manifest as done deal, people do already experience how the traitors in office are selling off the homeland or giving it away piece by piece, while the national population observe it and must pay the economic and cultural price. If Quisling was alive, he would be really pleased with what the establishment has accomplished in a few decades. The guys presently in office would not even need the formalities outlined in The Great Taking, since they are already pushing society into the same neo-feudal conditions anyway. It is not about treason and deception today because it is called the final tribulation, but the other way around. Thus, for the people, the formalities regarding the great taking make not that much difference. The real difference is mainly for the ecumenic and economic predators. The powers that be are corrupt anyway and have the mindset that would lead to social ruin regardless of legal formalities. The great taking is more a preparation to grab and secure what can be secured by those having the opportunity while there still is material value to be found.

Next of importance is to know the linking between the Vatican and the Western world in general, and particularly to know the link between the Vatican and the corporate USA when the western world is transformed under the weight of its own counter-reformatory rottenness. It is important to know the medieval conditions as the background model for the longer trends when the CIA-supported corporate USA became the state inquisitor on the global scene, which eventually must transform the western world and be the end of all such evil hegemony nurtured by theological Christendom and Satan's Vatican-based priesthood. EU became a legalist inquisitor and bully on the European continent, to have a reversing effect on the reformation, and US America became the corresponding global inquisitor and bully. These two apostate orders have been shaped by counter-reformatory agencies like those mentioned, to manifest that Christendom essentially is a Cainesian order built around the centre of a carnal, capital, and anti-Copernican self. In process of time the US American gospel became the imperialist Vatican gospel, again to manifest everything. The people have been lied to all the way about the Western world in general and USA in particular as a great exporter of democracy and freedom. It is no other than a deceptive fantasy of global proportions, a lie believed as long as there was still reformed gospel-mission residue to export, but no longer when antichrist's deceptive masquerade is unveiled. While EU removed national borders and reversed the European reformation, the corporate USA took the ideas to the world, serving antichrist's borderless dominion. The last tribulation and today's economic bankruptsy are founded by 2000-years moral bankruptsy. Christendom had no interest in Christ's true gospel. Apostasy culminates with the return of the gods. What USA and Washington, and Europe and Rome have in common is the first and final Pontifex Maximus. Return of the pagan gods is an occult and Obelisk-oriented return which ties Washington and USA to Rome and Europe.

The pacifist US America came with George Washington and lasted only a few decades, until the (anti)-interventionist Monroe doctrine was developed from the 1820s. Next step would be the expansionist US war against Mexico to make Texas US territory, and later, the more principal act of terror, to make Hawaii US territory in the late 1800s. Hawaii was an independent monarchy with resources the American capitalists could not resist exploiting. That led to the conflict built upon the standard medieval model to understand the CIA-supported corporate America committed to become a state inquisitor in support of the capitalist interests of corporate America. As soon as some locals began to protest against this foreign invasion and exploitation, and wanted to set borders and nationalise for the local people to benefit, it would soon cause a response where the typical outcome was that Hawaii by military power was forced to serve the corporate US America in the same way the English Lackland was forced to serve Satan's papist empire. During the medieval era would any person, reformer, group, king or country daring to challenge the imperialist interests of the priesthood of Satan cause a repressive response, a papal bull, an orchestrated murder, inquisition, terror, torture and war, violently forcing them back into the fold. Local actors or powers seeking independence would be overthrown and a regime-friendly puppet vassal and feudatory conditions would be reinstalled to serve the carnal interests of the imperialists. This medieval model became the reinforced standard with Hawaii, later banana conflicts and wars from the 1910s in Latin America, and later all over the world. It was the way to do it when the British-American interests violently intervened in 1951-53 to hinder any national change in the Iranian oil company, when, among Muslim Iranians, USA made itself the great Satan behind the puppet regime from 1953 to 1979, which became the foreign midwife to the Iranian 1979 revolution, and it was how to do it when many contributing groups conspired to orchestrate the plane crash in 1961 when the Swedish UN secretary, Dag Hammarskjöld, was murdered to hinder his intervention in Congo that might have restrained the capitalist interests of multiple companies. Congo was so rich in mines and minerals that is became both a national and imperialist catastrophe waiting to happen. Poor guys like the national Lumumba would also have to be removed for all the exploiting capital interests to get what they wanted in Congo. Many examples could have been mentioned. From the 1800s to the present the same would go on, so it is important to know the reformation basis for the 70 weeks and the link between the Vatican-based order of Satan and the rest of the western world, the healed apocalyptic wound, and the end of the story when the western world in general and USA in particular has become what the American forefathers ran away from in the early 1600s and now is eaten up from the inside by corruption and faces disaster under the weight of its own counter-reformatory rottenness. Since this reaches all the way into the final tribulation, it is important to know that one of the latest steps in the imperialist takeover when the US empire is threatened to be overthrown by the next, that the present western sanction regime, SWIFT and the weaponised US dollar, was the latest efforts of the ending empire as a western bully on the global scene, which also must be read in the extension to the overall inquisitorial operation from the medieval era to the present when the militant corporate USA became the favoured beast of the Vatican whore to ride to regain its lost medieval glory. This combination of Vatican inquisition and America as state inquisitor on the global scene, is so well established with historical evidence that it cannot be denied. It is prophetically foretold and historically confirmed how the globalist western Lackland is modelled on the medieval Lackland. This historical background is the reason why the average US American is the first to experience the evils of theology and Christendom fueling the general evils of western imperialism. The most definitive of prophetic indicators is the inner working of the western world, the market affairs, its greed, the Wall Street mindset, and the known pattern of economic history over the last 500 years, since they so well define man's business cycles, what must come and why it is coming in the form of a Cainesian nemesis. If you check typical stories like Hawaii, Latin America, Iran, Congo, etc., you will typically find a protesting, reformative Luther type challenging the imperialists and working for a people and their nation, that would be murdered or in other ways eliminated to protect the corporate interests of the foreign capitalists, soon to go on with capital business as usual. It is no-less important how the same internal logic follows the European EU destroying borders and enforcing free flow of the capital self and its Cainesian interests on European masses experiencing the same global enslavement. How the Western imperialists did it abroad when they enslaved the world, is eventually coming back to Christendom's rotten root, making it vital to know antichrist's Cainesian nature of EU and the corporate USA when the forces making the apocalyptic beast are ready to impose total CBDC enslavement at home and abroad. So far Satan's scheming has worked out as foretold. Theological Christendom is not only a great deceiver, but its utter moral bankruptsy is to have educated the western world to such a level of paralysis that even if all are aware of the warnings, and stare disaster and enslavement in the face, as foretold, there is still no will to muster the liberating power the Bible speaks of and was provided for, and worse, even if mirroring itself in the now proven fruits of total apostasy, the masses cling to it, assured by their pulpits that there is nothing wrong, at least nothing wrong in this assembly. You have no reason to worry.

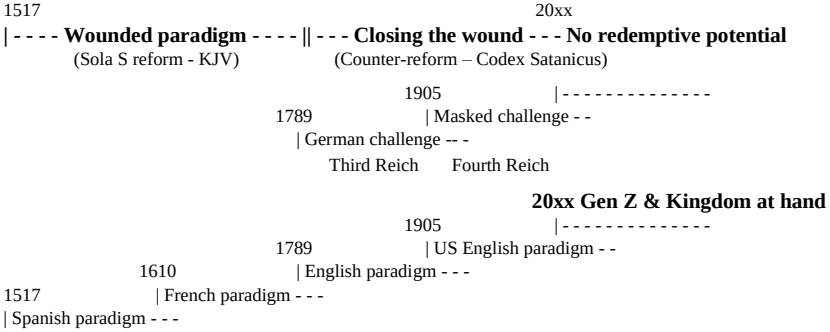
Papal intelligence networks execute surveillance all over the world and exceed the CIA. It may be more correct to say that CIA is an integrated part of the much greater globalist papal surveillance apparatus. CIA was no part of the free world in the early 1800s but was established after World war II (1947). The primary loyalty of its initiators, persons like William J. Donovan (OSS), would be to the Jesuit counter-reformation and restored papal power all over the western world. While preparing for antichrist and agenda 2030, there was no reason to believe that the early CIA was more loyal to the free world than the later CIA. Europe and USA are two corrupt swamps in need of being drained. From Trent to the 80/30-years war, from Vatican I to Holocaust, and from Vatican II and the 1968-generation to the present and beyond, there is no reason to distinguish between fully grown despotism, and the motivating, theological root of it pushing such a fruitful evil into office. All four cycles are growing acts of war directed against humanity under the theological dominion and supervision of antichrist, the vicar of Christ.

Now must the timeline be repeated to systematically and epistemologically retrace the most relevant steps of history, sorting out what to know and how to know in general, and what it means from a lingual perspective in particular, how apostasy is manifested and what it means to ride the apocalyptic beast. First Jesuit comeback with a vengeance was with the German Third Reich as a papal puppet regime trying to eclipse Europe and the western world. When that failed it was realised that the English lingual dimension could not be beaten and that an alternative strategy was needed. It was realised that it might be an easier solution to mask all affairs, make an US-English beast and ride that in disguise of being something else. As seen in US history, especially with the return of the pagan gods, and Georgetown disguised and appearing as Washington, the two moves, first the Third Reich as a papal puppet show, and finally the Fourth Reich as global papal puppet show, the mixed lingual mission of the Latin whore riding the English-speaking beast is woven into the history of the British-English and US-English empire, as partly defeated and partly used to serve papist ideas. To successfully close the wound and maintain that as the reset-reformatory new order would mean no rapture in any form and no redeemed paradigm but continued preterism in the next millennial swamp. Codex Satanicus and bastardisation of the British empire and its English mission to the world have turned the Lord's legitimate lingua franca into global whoredom. In the Lord's national kingdom is legislative independence a promise premised by the people's lingual competence.



Read in context, before a potential millennial gospel kingdom can be, must the Vatican go down forever, and Europe and USA pay the price of the present, reaping the fruits of globalist ruling surrounded by ignorant masses contributing to these evils. Things at the core of it, to abolish sola scriptura and reverse the reformation, make unifying trends to unmask the much longer trends of personal and global inquisitions. How things are done to silence all public protest today, is no different than how the priesthood of Satan tried to silence the reformers and the groups posing a threat to their evil establishment. Some general apostate principles are extracted from the time of Henry VIII, bloody Mary, and King James and the gun powder plot as classical ways to deal with any unruly element, person, group, sect, or state, forcing them back into the fold and reinstating an obedient puppet regime living in absolute submission under Satan's patriarchal ruling structures. Therefore, the basics of Agenda 2030 would bring all these old threats and totalitarian inquisitions back together for a final manifestation of reset-reformatory evils on earth. It is really simple. The better knowledge of prophecy and history, and scripture in general, the more definitive picture of truth and reality in the affairs of church and state.

Laodicean apostasy and medieval apostasy have the same characteristics and are driven by the same motives and forces, indicating that it is the same actors behind. Inquisition is predictable and would always be directed against the remnant where revival is still an alive element, also today repeating how predictable it is who would be shut down and silenced, and prosecuted, sentenced, and put away if necessary.

Now after listing some of the most relevant details regarding agenda 2030, the globalist to-do list of how to make things happen was made and became the 10-point plan named after Alice Bailey (1880-1949). Her list serves as a checklist what would be the globalist agenda and how far these steps have come to fulfil the papist/Jesuit/UN agenda 2030. Alice Bailey's 10-point plan for how to implement the new world order, would be a plan to remove all the nations from the Judeo/Christian tradition, instead having a pontifical Roman substitute. The unstated driver behind the points is how to silence the truth.

1 Take G-d and prayer out of the education system.

2 Reduce parental authority over the children.

3 Destroy the Judeo/Christian family structure or traditional christian family structure.

4 If sex is free, then make abortion legal and make it easy.

5 Make divorce easy and legal, free people from the concept of marriage for life.

6 Make homosexuality an alternative lifestyle.

7 Debase art, make it run mad.

8 Use media to promote and change mindset.

9 Create an interfaith movement.

10 Get governments to make all these law and get the church to endorse these changes.

The 10 points listed are only the headings. Subpoints add the reasoning details why they were made to destroy the free world by destroying its stable culture. It is a direct attack on all the institutions needed to make and preserve a free world. In Norway are most of these destructive points now government policy made in agreement with the majority church, and pushed into the education system, the kindergarten, the family, and society in general, mainly by an aggressive army of LGBTQ activists. Any party daring to voice a protest will soon receive an angry response, with law and court involved if necessary. Be not surprised that medieval, pontifical restoration would inevitably come with the correspondingly repressive parental state having no more respect for the sovereignty of G-d than for the sovereignty of nation, person and family. Antichrist, the vicar of Christ, did never respect any part of G-d's mission, but is simply confirming why the liberation of man depends on ending the dictatorship of theology. Protestantism and Catholicism could no more peacefully coexist than Isaac and Ishmael. The only lasting tradition and nation is the people of the book. Jewish preservation has literally proven the fact that preservation of the book equals preservation of culture and people. In its apostate, papal form it becomes an odd tradition. Papists do need and must somehow say that they want the book, but in reality they did never want a true people of the book.

Next, now an abstract of standard deviation and end-time issues. First how the latest 2x4 generations profile how things tend to be repeated. How things developed in the decades before Quisling got his official, state position as a part of the Nazi era all over Europe, is repeated with the weird and woke today. Man's hubris of ambition goes hand in hand with the latest economic and legislative wave of empire, depending on national treason. How the Pope expressed his "sorrow" over war casualties in Ukraine and other areas in 2023, repeated how such hypocrisy led to the brennender sorge in the 1930s and 1940s. Imperial ambition and attitude preparing for catastrophe from Vatican I to World War II, repeats itself from Vatican II to the present and beyond as final precepts shaping the last doctrinal layer of mosaic recycling. A little portion of ambitious imperialist attitude would eventually leaven the whole globalist lump.

Next step says how Moses, Maslow and Marx combined implement the four generations and build the present twofold development. Agenda 2030 and the great taking combined means to establish the law, antichrist's whole leavened Lackland lump. It is the typical top-down approach to everything as soon as the surviving fittest minds have managed to secure the ruling state institutions for themselves and their, surviving-fittest selfishness seated on top: I am the state. It is the anthropological pinnacle where the law has been established as a legalistic absolute with a judicial slaugherhouse trying to eliminate all enemies. Survival of the fittest would bring the man of sin to the top of the hierarchy of sin, and would implement laws and judicial measures for self-protection, establishing all the redemptive opposites of sola S jurisdiction. Satan's jurisdiction and that hierarchy, is repressive and inquisitorial for self-protective reasons. Satan's protective propaganda and control have no other reason than the fallen man's selfishness. Deception, lies, legal acts, lawfare, warfare etc., are all done to establish the wanted papal control with society. Some of the expanded picture is how those in office, serving agenda 2030, Satan's great reset and great taking, put pressure on farmers and food production, basically everything of primary needs, to create famine and mass poverty. As expected when the medieval structuring is restored and Satan's Lackland 2.0 grows, under the reign of vicar lordship, multiple parts of history go hand in hand. While robbing people and nations, enriching themselves by imposing imperial, top-down structuring, the idiots and traitors in office create this now historically well-established pattern, enriching themselves by destroying the people's needs. Ambitious and empowered top levels in Moses, Maslow, and Marx reflect how ruling establishments enrich themselves and trample down people and public needs. Public protest by farmers and other groups exposed to the great spectrum of pain orchestrated by those in office, would be shut down by legislative and judicial measures made to protect the ruling mafia. History must repeat itself in multiple ways but with the sufficient accuracy people need to know the historical basics in Moses, Maslow, Marx and others, and the final need for a rescuing messianic mission. It was predictable that a completed counter-reform would have to eliminate the middle class, because that was what sola scriptura and the priesthood of believers required as the founding necessity built from 1500 to 1800 in preparation of the free world. To restore Satan's episcopal pre-1517 structuring of society means a full reverse of the anthropological characteristics of the free world. In G-d's kingdom is the constituitional about people, We the people. In Satan's episcopal upside-down, is constitution about legal documents and legalistic brats in 5% business using their biased interpretations to impose injustice. Lackland 2.0 is modelled on the episcopal structuring of the church-state in the medieval Lackland. This is what the surviving fittest capital self needs for its own top-down protection.

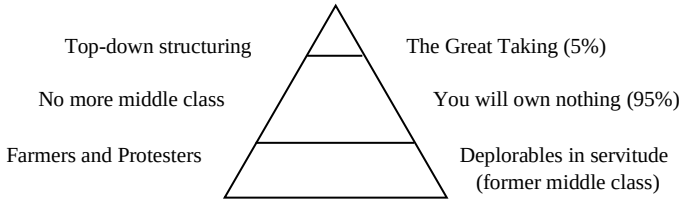
The Fourth Reich – Lackland 2.0

(Antichrist, Agenda 2030, neo-feudalism, the great taking, and the counter-reformatory reset)



Lawfare against political opponents is not an isolated phenomenon but belongs to the big picture of lawfare and warfare against humanity. Idiots in office have no competence on nation-building. They are there to boost their ego, increase their power, and expand their imperial territory, and that is how they cause even more disunited nations, and UN to be an international battleground. Lawfare inside the political establishment is one element in the overall sanction regime the office holders have established with a swelling state, a swelling bureaucracy, and a swelling, totalitarian legislation. It is corrupt, mismanaged, and destructive, and nepotism and simony are parts of the program in both church and state. Steadily growing masses of people and nations would find that they need to rise up in protest against this globalist monster and against the now increasingly repressive and predatory state the idiots in office have made for themselves and their globalist masters. As political conflicts expand on and around the counter-reformatory condition, and man goes back to the medieval swamp, it means going back to the survival of the fittest with conflicts and conquering instead of cooperative resolution.

With the idiots in office, doing what the supra-national policy makers, the violent street mob, and the activists want them to do, have the meaning of wolves in sheep's clothing made itself very practical. Lost competence on true nation-building means that globalist ideas disguised as tolerance and diversity, are totalitarian demands of conformity, using projection as a blame-game to protect the aggressive agenda. If an activist is provoked, it does not take long before the sneering wrath comes to the surface, and open threats are heard. Free speech is immediately seen as intolerable and may soon face the police and the justice system. Totalitarian minds sufficiently deluded may even think they are liberal protectors of the free world. It is the rule of idiots legislating their own idiocy and proving that they have no competence on nation-building for lasting national and world stability. Present affairs are so openly idiotic that the need to question the level of reason and sanity prompts itself. It is the next kairos moment and historical tipping point when cultural war became military slaughter. Directive by directive have the idiots in office nurtured the totalitarian while suppressing the truly liberal and tolerant. Such behaviour did historically go on until a boiling pot of fury exploded and something of revolutionary character followed, if war did not solve the problem for the rulers.

Some more perspectives need to be added. First, that free speech is just as constitutional as the constitution itself, as a need to give the people in a free world their right to speak up against despotic ideas and rulers coming into office. As history has proven, it was a slow process to elect and move the Nazi regime into office. Stalin could move much more freely and effectively without being hindered by democratic laws and institutions. Today the same is repeated. When western establishments in Europe and USA criticised Moscow and Putin for his immediate and effective dealing with political opponents, the western alternative is an ineffective and much slower process. First, general legislation against "hate" speech to shut down protest. Secondly, a digital Goebbels act on media and internet. Neo-feudal rulers need to turn the constitution upside down and shut down political protest because they need to protect themselves from the fruitful evils of their own creation with protective legislative measures against critique of the increasingly despotic mindset in office, and they need legislation to stop unwanted protest against the establishment's violent street mob. As copycats in office, they need this constitutional upside-down for inquisitorial use against the people instead of the original, which was a need to protect the people from despotism in office. In its western form it is slower and more ineffective compared to other regimes, but the judicial outcome is the same horror.

Next perspective to add is that in 2012, while the Norwegian constitution was rewritten to formally repeal the constitutional details that made Norway a Protestant entity, had the crown since 2010 been actively involved in preparing WEF's 2012 Oslo Hub. As far as kings, crowns, and royal households can be spoken of as constitutional and reasonable, had Norway from 1905 a reasonable king and crown for two generations. With the third generation from 1991, the cracks would soon be visible, and the weird, woke, and the cultural identity crisis would soon be tangible and expressed by the crown itself. In four generational steps, while Norway is moving closer to become a republic, and the crown is contributing to prove itself a worthless taxpaid expense, ending itself, the fourth royal stage is just as helpless and surrounded by chaos as Louis XVI and Marie Antoinette. It seems both constitutional and representative that the rulers and households today do not know where they come from and where they are going. Long before Luther and the year 1517, had the establishment provoked protest and reform, taken to the next level with the French revolution, for everything of reformative and revolutionary nature to be merging today. When Schwab speaks of cabinets, and now also how the crowns are penetrated, it is a reference to guys like Børge Brende and Espen Bart Eide. They are the infiltrators from WEF's Young Global Leaders' forum, setting up centres like WEF's Oslo Hub all over the western world. Their primary loyality is not toward the national population but to Schwab's Fourth Reich, working in joint effort with cabinets, crowns and congress in Europe and USA to reshape all earlier free nations to become lacklands and vassal states under papal guidance. EU's Surveillance Act and propaganda ministers preparing their Fourth Reich are no-less despotic than they were in the Third Reich. A reformative reset means restoring medieval ruling structures. It is papal paganism and the Carnal Roman Empire all over again. Now can people all over the world smell the stinking character of traitors, despotism, and idiocy in office. After reinstituting full-scale relativism, present generational clans of loyal WEF puppet crowns and vassal cabinets do not have a will of their own. As political dealing with Norway's power grid has proven, they are servile executors, clerks, and bureaucratic minds eager to please the interests of their globalist masters. With all the extra perspectives now integrated, the meaning of a people living as national sovereigns, We the people, after declaring independence, it cannot be clearer that today's breed in office, working to reinstitute universal and global interdependence, are neo-feudalists systematically and in slow "democratic" motion working to overthrow the constitution. It needs to be read according to how apostasy works out the apocalypse. Open rebellion against G-d and the Bible's intended homeland mission manifests itself as more or less open, counter-reformatory rebellion against the people's need and against the constitutional outcome from 1500 to 1800, now working out Codex Satanicus and its mission to reverse everything coming with scriptural providence. State power would be the proof-maker of the church as driving motivator, instigator, and founding idiot.

Next perspective is that if Karl Marx was alive and could have monitored the integration of Moses and Maslow, in steps from protest to revolution from the 1960s to the present, he might have focused on two major steps in the development of neo-feudalism with the new serf class. First step would be the building of the Human Resource (HR) industry, Man-age-ment, with corporations like Manpower and Adecco, a multitude of recruiting agencies of such, growing into a global industry together with the general development of global trade and trafficking. This first HR step did much to isolate the labouring serf class from the means of production, from industrial property and property rights. This is how the financial and indebting, I-Owe-You vs I-Own-You, begins as capital, Sodomite control with all souls in a beast-marked Cainesian Ponzi economy: Give me the persons, and take the goods to thyself. Agenda 2030 is dead-on in how they redevelop the devil's business, and promote the reason for Abraham's redemptive rescue mission to buy back all the lost souls traded, trafficked, and enslaved under the episcopal oversight of Satan.

Marx's next step is the more comprehensive, final great taking, when the neo-feudal serf class is isolated also from their private property and property rights, and stripped of all privacy in Sodom. Just like the parallel with slavery as basis for banking development in the 1600s and 1700s, partly ended in the era and aftermath of Napoleon, is the present HR comeback with a vengeance taking this, in-person host and property program to the next level. Human life is losing all intrinsic value. Everything is profitable, for sale, and for-profit is the only estimation of value. All calculation is economic and financial. With Quisling restored in office, and Goebbels as mixed media and propaganda minister and gatekeeper, is treason growing into an Orwellian level the Nazi rulers could only dream of. This makes the meaning of the finally failed state definitive. Everything national, had in common in terms of private and public property and property rights, the essential meaning and reason for having a sovereign state and national independence, initiating the democratic era, is under the new traitor era of Quisling and Goebbels fully reversed. While enriching themselves and their Public-Private partners in plunder, shutting down free speech and protest by increasingly totalitarian "hate" speech surveillance, and giving away people's private and public property and property rights, is the new traitor class of rulers and bureaucrats in office insisting that we live in a free, democratic world. So, in essence, when the first reason for having a national state administration is turned upside down, the only point left in office is to preserve an official, legislative and judicial, and essentially lame and non-executive state, preserved as a Public-Private plunder office for the need of exchanging wealth for slavery, and overseeing the transfer of property and property rights as legitimate affairs under (vassal) state control. Real powers behind the scene need the state as a bureau of whitewashing and protection to be able to do and get what they want, and the other way around, the traitors in office need the private partners to outsource the plundering part the state cannot to directly because it is more difficult for protesters to attack private businesses doing the act of plunder on the state's behalf. Deceptive ideas and corporations like Cede & Co belong to the era of treason. In USA it is a grand theft taken care of by Cede, on behalf of the theft agency, the Depository Trust Company (DTC). The two corresponding European houses of theft, or central securities depository, are the two clearing agencies, Euroclear and Clearstream, both having a list of owners, DTC participants, members of the protected class, the real owners that have a registered right to claim their assets restored or compensated when the house of theft goes insolvent. Unprotected parties, not listed as DTC participants, will lose everything because they are not protected with a listed right to claim anything from the certificate depository after the planned crash. Outsourcing in general is how ownership and control have been ceded to the private, globalist stakeholders and beneficiaries, as members of the new protected class of rulers and owners, while transferring risk, debt, and problems away from the new protected class to the disinherited serf class. The most important risk management for Schwab's WEF "stakeholders" assembling in Davos, is how to keep the masses ignorant sufficiently long to finish the great robbery they have planned to do. Stake-holder Capitalism and Public-Private partnership are two ways of expressing the same business of plunder. It means colonising the state and turning it into an instrument to enslave the people. After colonising the state and setting up PPP, the private sector, mainly all globalist corporations, would be used as proxies to enforce all the totalitarian ideas that would be much harder to enforce directly by the state. It is much harder for disinherited citizens to voice their protest against private business owners, and the new traitor class in office is well aware of that and how to be strategic in implementing the deceptive globalist policy of national plunder.

A practical example how Public-Private partnership works, is how the new Surveillance Act is intended to work and please all parties of stakeholders in the restored patriarchal church-state, which means that if exercised as intended you will no longer find material like you read here after a google search, because it is too offensive to all establishments. State legislators will find it hard to explicitly legislate against it, so the solution is to use the private platforms to censure it out of sight. State legislators may even encourage all citizens to use their right to speak and publish in the new free utopia, but you will never find it online because the private plunder partners exercised the censuring act the public plunder party wanted by contract. While this goes on, the theological establishment will stay silent and happy that the new Digital Surveillance Act took care of the need for an updated conventicle law without making it the law it actually is but taking effect under the disguise of being something else. In other words, the farther you move back into this medieval swamp, the more allegorical must the reading of the law be done because lost authenticity is a wolf in disguise and a gulf between what is said and what it means. A by-product of relativism and the nature of error assuming the position of the truth, is that everything drifts. Nothing is reliable other than the horror of the new tyrant class solving how to protect the established PPP stakeholders wanting 100% censorship by 5% proxy.

In order to be able to enforce full slavery, the PPP rulers must control everything online, they must control all communication, and to have a system that can remove anything the tyrants may call misinfo or disinfo. No free internet, no independent press, and nothing uncensored the people can pick up and share other than locally. As PPP became the way to infiltrate the state, or penetrate the cabinets as Schwab calls it, it would be inevitable that the state becoming corrupt was a state becoming totalitarian. State traitors would be fundamentally corrupt and have a fundamentally totalitarian mindset. These are some of the PPP traits of Schwab Fourth Reich. An army of young global leaders is groomed to serve Schwab's despotic dream of stakeholder capitalism. While theologians took care of Codex Satanicus and the ecumenical plan to reset the reformation from Dung hill, did those involved in finance do their part of serving the economic reset. WEF's epicentre is the western world, driving the 5% process when the world is transitioned away from the language and culture of the true Bible, and by PPP is transitioned away from the free world that came with the reformation. All sectors are involved in the reset-reformatory process with the ESG economy, UN's global summit 202x, world pact, global compact, future generations, digitalisation etc., all elements of UN's despotic agenda 2030.

One moral lesson learned is simple: With the establishment in office, and the globalist infiltrators making it worse, the nations have got the simplest form of rule of law, which means to reward the corrupt and irresponsible, and tax and punish the responsible. After proving themselves legislative, judicial, and financial idiots in office in third generation, these groups have taken the next step and are more aggressively provoking and pushing war, while expecting the increasingly impoverished, disinherited, and deplorable masses to line up as imperial cannon fodder. Historically, all empires would end the same way. They expanded their area and influence, and nurtured the despotic until they crumbled under the weight of their own ruling rottenness. Globalism is simply the ultimate form of imperialism, and the ultimate form of ruling incompetence and cultural rottenness.

Another lesson learned with the idiots in office is where interdependence, injustice, and legal incompetence (Urettsstaten) come from, and how all the servile vassal states could be added to the global empire in the neofeudal era. National legislators and bureaucrats have no will and capacity to think and act for themselves and take care of national needs. Their main guideline is to follow the international trends and make them legal national policy. As obedient bureaucrats in Schwab's Fourth Reich, the imperial role of national clerks is to implement the devil's design, whatever enslaving directive put on their desk, coming from the globalists ruling the world from the higher echelons in supra-national institutions. Today's innumerable neufeudal clerks illustrate how may times the size of the implementing apparatus in the Third Reich had to be multiplied in order to rescale the size of the Nazi clerk apparatus to be big enough to cover all the command lines and lower positions required to work for the ruling globalists highest in rank. Antichrist's iron/clay realm needs a servile, numbing and laming apparatus, to stay obedient, keep rank, and willingly take care of all steps in the enslaving process at all levels. Slowly and in ordered and coordinated form have the networked organisational infrastructure been put in place relatively peacefully and willingly just in time to be ready for the finishing generation of ruling predators equipped with the technology to exercise full control and full surveillance. People and nations, especially in the western world, have paid for and more or less willingly contributed to their own enslavement. Most of the bureaucratic doers at lower office levels are disposable like the rest when they have done their part. Digital id and CBDC are the two big remaining pieces in the apocalyptic puzzle to make antichrist's power pyramid ready to do what the globalist build-up intended for while preparing all the other parts to be ready before Schwab's global reset would be activated and the Fourth Reich could be digitally empowered. Because digital id and CBCD make the ultimate toolkit to rule the world, it would not be seen what the rest of the globalists' networked infrastructure was intended for until this digital activator would unlock the so-far mostly hidden elements of Orwell's horror.

Third lesson learned is that persons like the Norwegian Vidkun Quisling were not a rare and isolated phenomenon but a characteristic person and personality representative for the generation of idiots and traitors coming into office on a grand scale in the national Hedon and Sodom. Man's mind in the Third Reich is now a no-less ambitious globalist mindset made manifest to the world as the main building block also in the Fourth Reich. Representative traitors and idiots in office are willing to sacrifice people and nations in order to serve globalist trends while boosting their own ambition and self-importance. Man in full-scale deception mode is man in the latest Luciferian era to be dealt with and known as man's hubris of ambition. The more deluded self in office, the greater god in his own universe. This ambitious evil and boundless hubris is what people and nations must pay the price for on the road to Agenda 2030 and Armageddon.

With all perspectives in mind, it should be much clearer why a mass revival and reform is required for the people to liberate themselves from their rideable, deistic, beast state as a new, global serf class having all the preying 5% profiteers and rulers on their backs demanding a free ride and the serfs to pay the price for the ride. How the whore always sought a serving puppet state beast to ride and control for free, would always be a deistic phenomenon with no other liberating solution than trinitarian revival and awareness.

Now some other perspectives on agenda 2030 and the great taking. First perspective, which fits this picture, is the UN-fueled, human rights-based, in itself with bankrupting effect on the state finances, demand of nations to pay reparation for slavery, and next, a human rights-based demand to pay reparation for climate change and an environment to have caused lesser quality of life for global citizens. UN and serving organisations have opened a door into expenses coming on top of already burdened state finances, and both fit agenda 2030 and the great taking, with an economic burden to potentially bankrupt state finances multiple times, and it is no surprise that on top of the UN-demanding list of nations required to pay reparation are the US and UK. For UN as a papist agency, the most important nations to ruin to satisfy papist and Jesuit wrath are the earlier Protestant reformation bastions, UK and USA. Most economists are well aware that a free people and their well-functioning countries always would have a much greater potential to pay interest to the investors than any slavery-based economy would have. The point is that if agenda 2030 and the great taking were economically motivated and backed by globalist legislation aiming to maximise the profit for bankers and investors, the forces behind it would be much more sensitive to things relevant for long-lasting economic stability, and would therefore be supportive of free countries and their long-term social stability and economic productivity. But the globalist point is that agenda 2030 and the great taking are theologically motivated and fueled by counter-reformatory wrath. It is foretold, and about the political monster of Roman Catholicism. People can see the white and visible part of the "church" on a daily basis, but will more rarely, if at all, get a glimpse of the black and dark side of this ecumenical evil. For the despotic religious actors behind it, is the ecumenical side much more important than the economic, and in fact so much more important that the directors behind veil are willing to ruin the world economy in order to regain control over the Lackland masses. It is devilish to the core, just as prophetically foretold, and therefore what to expect from this apocalyptic beast. One part is economic and about landgrabbing and theft of all wealth. The much more fundamental element is total enslavement and control over the global serf class under the borderless imperialism of Pope and Magisterium on the medieval, now globalist church-state model with UN as legislative and ruling puppet under moral supervision of Pope and Magisterium. People knowing the stinking details of medieval evils should be able to recognise the renewed smell of Satan's universal jurisdiction colouring all aspects of life, all levels of ruling, and how it affects all areas of life and all corners of the earth. How the white and visible is set up as a smokescreen to hide the black and dark, is one of the greatest elements of deception the Bible is warning of regarding the end times.

The Pope, pagan pontiff, and now also Pimpriarch of the West, ruler of the fallen man's faith, rules a Nicodemus-form of religious ideas and practice drifting around in circles of vanity. In 2024 the Roman Pontifex Maximus did both refresh old claims following his pagan titles, and published a new ecumenical document about the Bishop of Rome as the latest effort to fool and force earlier protesting denominations into submission. Be aware of the parallel developments. As the secular, economic, political, and diplomatic advance of Agenda 2030 goes on, is the ecumencial dialogue and advance to reestablish papal primacy a parallel advance. It is the same overall plan of total subjugation. The Pope is indeed Pontifex Maximus. He is not the successor of Peter, but the successor of the pagan Caesar, given the title Pontifex Maximus just in time for the birth of Jesus. As Pontifex Maximus II at Y2K builds on Pontifex Maximus I at BC/AD, is the syncretic development today an exact replica of the first Roman Pontifex Maximus, the greatest in a collegium of pontifical paganists. First brat among brats begin there, not in any form of truth AD, but based on a pagan BC. Ancient Roman religion is essential background for the understanding of the most prominent, first brat among brats. As many already have observed, is the regained stature of the occult in Rome, Washington (and Brussels) related to the year 2025 no coincidence. In this context, if there was anything that really would be important in apostolic matters, while professing to represent infallibility and universal jurisdiction, it would be an absolute separation of the episcopal AD from the past pontifical paganism BC. But not so, it is instead one of the most stinking elements of antisemitism to profess representation of the Jewish Jesus Christ while following the syncretic form of pontifical Romanism. The Pope regularly mentions fraternal relations, but the two other words that both belong to it and are necessary, liberty and egalitarian conditions, stand in opposition to the pontifical hierarchy. Impostors want and demand fraternity but do not want liberty and the egalitarian conditions free fraternity builds on. In his latest letter on church history (Nov. 2024), the Pope does not speak of the love of G-d but a substitute love of the church, which means an unstated demand for the masses to submit to and love antichrist's 5% hierarchy and the vicar of Christ. Next, confessions and being confessional are aspects of history's episcopal infantilism and the dictatorship of theology. Corporate creeds and confession(s) began with theologians imposing what the masses were required to believe, and how the masses were expected and increasingly forced to submit to the hierarchy of Satan and the dictatorship of theology exercised by episcopal infantilism. Repressive ideology and totalitarianism made the historical frame when Luther championed man's need for a free conscience as a necessity to receive the faith of G-d, not the vain deposit of the establishment. The Bible and G-d's redemptive gospel mission would never be understood without being aware of G-d's plan to liberate the world from Satan's priesthood of original sin. Restoring G-d's original sola scriptura was a liberating need, restoring how and why reform and the redemptive are structural and organisational elements coming with the separation of powers and with the need to separate the state from the despotic ideas nurtured by theology and theologians. While the stinking elements of apostasy and despotism grow together, two parallel pyramids restore medieval ruling structures. Pope and Magisterium ruling from their peak of the ecclesial, and a subject UN power pyramid of puppet states set up for and in obedience to the papal pyramid of power with no separation of powers and no separation of church and state. As a useful instrument under the dictatorship of theology, is democracy under globalist traitors ready to prove itself the worst of all possible forms of government.

Now the next set of elements to combine. At a given point on the timeline from 1800 to the days Max Weber wrote the book on the Protestant work ethics, would history have passed the point of peak performance in terms of work ethics and man's personal and collective ability to be self-sustained in preserving personal and national independence. Why Weber wrote his book is in this context irrelevant. The much more relevant part is that personal work ethics and national independence are inseparable. Four generations after Max Weber are these things repeated. Work ethics is replaced with corruption and globalist chaos, and national independence is replaced with interdependence. Chaos is one of many change agents coming with agenda 2030. Reverse of the reformation means restored poverty and borderless Catholic chaos. With Trump and Vance in office was the long-gone realisation that imperialism is fundamentally destructive to social stability and national productivity, restored. The longer the Babylonian globalists were able to stay in office, the more total would the ruin be for Israel and the free nations.

Next step in this is how globalism and foreign aid became vehicles to bring chaos to the world. After the Marshall plan was done, this would get completely out of control from the 1960s. Be therefore aware that how the foreign aid industry was developed from the 1960s to the present, is the global and globalist extension to the welfare state. While the foreign aid industry fueled corruption and chaos all around the world, did those in office at the state level cause a corresponding chaos and corruption at home. While the social expenses grow steadily more greedy on the state balance, have endless areas around the world become dependent on foreign aid. It is necessary to understand that while work ethics and independence have been replaced by corruption, chaos, and interdependence, is the fruitful global outcome both at home and abroad, as expected by the orchestrators behind Agenda 2030, that no group will eventually be able to remain self-sustained and independent, and no group will be allowed to be self-sustained and independent. Chaos corruption, and crash were instrumental by design.

Now you should get into the level of absurdity in missional aid where the social and now globalist welfare state has taken over and as a secular unit tries to do what only the true church could possibly do but did not. While apostasy is developed to the present level of missional implosion, is the now globalist missional welfare state trying to compensate for that and execute the absolute mission impossible. Try to comprehend the latest news and level of absurdity when some secular NGO reports how hard it is to bring adequate help in sufficient quantity to be effective around the globe. It is like having secularised, commercialised, and turned G-d's kingdom into a foreign aid industry, desperate after G-d's kingdom but rejecting the necessary gospel foundation. All details like this can be interpreted directly or as offsprings of what Booth prophesied would be the imploding conditions surrounding mission impossible four generations after his death. Global and globalist insanity is to want peace on earth but reject the only working premise.

Multilateral policies shaped from the 1960s would lead to total interdependence in most sectors. From 1995 would WTO be a World Trade Organisation system enveloping how EU works on a smaller scale in Europe to break down all national barriers and destroy national independence. Any catastrophe, failure, or disruption in the system or a supply chain somewhere would soon spread globally because no country had maintained their ability to remain independent and self-sustained. Welcome to antichrist's realm. As one of the elements of the parental state under papal supervision, is foreign aid and growing helplessness a part of pontifical globalism and its organised infantilism. 15-minute cities would be 15-minute kindergartens. Ambitious globalists in office serving agenda 2030 prove that they are idiots in office. Globalism would increase until some began doing something to prevent its total outcome. As things go in the wrong direction, total idiocy means a direction from not only some failed states but a failed world. So, what does the Pope really want with his latest attack on Vance and Trump? Canossa 2.0? It is surely about jurisdiction and restored "rights" to boss around globally with earlier reformed, free nations. The Pope must feel justified in ordering Vance and Trump into submission as the US vassals both expected and needed to submit, take orders, and fulfil antichrist's agenda. While trying hard to enforce Lackland 2.0 and Canossa 2.0, it must be hard for the Pope and his Jesuit cronies to see agenda 2030 and the globalist utopia vanish before their eyes. It looks like Ratzinger was smarter than his successor, and knew that he had to get off this train before it got too embarrassing. The world is mad and it wonders after a mad beast, and wants to be deceived.

In this context two remarks are needed because the Pope's letter is a trojan agenda with two major elements. First about the Pope's perverse "ordo amoris", an element in the correspondingly perverse Catholic "common good" where the poor were not allowed to put any protective borders around them and their closest but are expected to completely sacrifice themselves at the service of the despot on top of the chain of command. Next, a trojan horse works according to the ideology of a fifth column within national borders. It is how the Pope and the Islamists generally argue that all must accept the laws of the country they come to, while real obedience is to their master outside these borders. After having managed to place their fifth column army within the borders somewhere, guys like the Pope expect those inside to somehow relate to national laws and orders only as far as that does not violate any of the superior orders coming from the primary command centre outside national borders. This is the problem shared between Islam and Roman Catholicism. Their primary obedience would normally be a command centre outside the nation. For a Catholic like Vance, it is not only archheresy to go against the Pope as the supreme commander, but to set up protective borders would destroy the Pope's globalist agenda. The Pope is a great hypocrite. His concern is agenda 2030 and how to remove all the protective borders that came in the wake of the sola S reformation. Pope Francis has no more love for any refugee than any other antichrist has had. His "common good" means total self-sacrifice. Catholic "dignity" is not for the people but is limited to the Pope and his magisterial dignitaries. By his latest trojan letter to the American bishops, the Pope wanted to activate his American fifth column, have them stir up internal affairs, and go against the people. While causing problems around the world and making a fool of himself, this is the Pope ruling ex cathedra. This lastest attack on USA is only one of the pieces in the apocalyptic puzzle needed to understand the greater picture of ongoing apostasy championed by the Pope. Islam and Roman Catholicism are two of a kind in imperial ideology, in borderless reign, and now also partners in migration. After hearing Hamas saying that the Palestinian people are not their concern, you may conclude the same way after hearing the Pope. Within the framework of the pontifical agenda 2030, there is no reason for Trump and Vance to be particularly concerned with their country and people, and no reason for any hierarchy of priorities in which groups to care for first and in order. Trump/Vance vs the Pope and the European establishment is another round of Realpolitik against utopian Moralpolitik, repeating the kulturkampf in the days before World War I. You simply need to understand the Pope's Lackland 2.0 premise built into the migration details. After restoring Pontifical control with the world, and removing all national borders and installing the Catholic "common good" universally and globally, there is no argument for any discrimination. Antichrist's agenda is built into the Pope's (unstated Lackland 2.0) address. Most Western citizens have or should have come to the conclusion that most of the rulers in office are global players proving that they are more concerned with people and problems on the other side of the world than with growing issues at home. National and globalist ruins grow together under the reign of the idiots. Decades before coming to 2030 has the pontifical poison penetrated all the cabinets and caused most of the establishment in office agree to make their own people a secondary priority, deplorable and disposable, while providing for any other group given priority. They are all useful idiots on the Pope's apostate playground. As predicted in the Bible is the Pope a committed apostate and Babylonian. To sacrifice the borders, is to sacrifice the people. With Max Weber still in mind, the Pope displays a profound lack for ethical reflection and a profound lack of intellectual capacity and missional awareness. He is not even able to articulate his deceitful ideology in a way which hides what must come with it and where it come from. All the globalist ideas the office holders share and contribute to must come from somewhere. Indeed, it is not from Davos.

The Jews are G-d's most gifted people on earth, but it came with a by-product and some useless guys like Yuval Noah Harari. The Third Reich fostered ideas and forums like the WEF, where Schwab's Fourth Reich reproduces the ruling ideas and mindset that led to world history's greatest waste bin, the holocaust. Schwab's Fourth Reich has ideological architects just like the Third Reich had on waste management. The Third Reich found a solution to what was called the Jewish Question. The Fourth Reich has already started the search to find a solution to the Useless Question. In two steps, it would be a grafted solution as antichrist's version of Rom 11, and Jezebel's establishment wants to police the debate about it with room only for civilised arguments brought forth in good faith. Two versions of grafting are lining up its forces for a potential solution. In the book of Revelation this is a continued or a fallen Babylon. For antichrist, Pontifex Maximus and vicar Christendom, this is to finish the unfinished about the year 70AD and holocaust. If they are able to more fully solve the Jewish Question, they will also be able to solve the Useless Question. One way or the other, Armageddon is a dead end where the variety of questions and grafted solutions can go no further. It is like wheat and tares. They can no longer coexist and grow together but must lead to one or the other. Antichrist's world needs no invitation to Armageddon. It is the driving desire to go in such a direction and finally be able to finish the still unfinished chapter called Holocaust. Now in this context and after Covid 19, it should be more obvious that WEF and WHO are two parts of the same story. Artificial intelligence and big pharma are two parts of the same grotesque picture. In two steps toward antichrist's Utopia, the Third Reich's Ubermensch is in its final form the Fourth Reich's programable, artificial Cybermensch. Transhumanism in the Fourth Reich stands on the shoulders of eugenics in the Third Reich. To finally end all free will and reasonable protest, can men and unruly masses be drugged to silence, and as an artificial and programmable automaton, can man be governed with no need to consider what the masses may do to challenge the ruling powers. The Useless Question is simply economic and rational, like the days of slavery. Effective governments want to rely on the fictional human rights fabricated by UN, and cannot afford any real human rights coming from a reasoning and behaving people living undrugged and still in their senses to understand what goes on. This form of absolute determinism is what the Bible calls bit and bridle, after a reintegrated primitive church-state has decayed into such an ignorant and evil state of affairs that the beastly ruling class can survive only by mental manipulation and drugged control with the population. A certain percentage, primarily from the useless class, may be eliminated, or at least dramatically reduced in number. A smaller percentage should be kept alive, living as muted and servile serfs in 15-minute cities, because they are needed and profitable in the economy of the Fourth Reich. This is how the Fourth Reich wants to perfect the ruling rationalism of the Third Reich. Real human rights and thinking human beings are unwanted sand in the gears of rationalism. The Third Reich, and now also the Fourth Reich, are the best examples of Rationalism, because perfected efficiency must sacrifice all hindering and opposing values. R/S make the pair, Rationalism and Sustainability, which explains the fantastic Utopia of so-called UN Sustainability Development Goals. While working to perfect brute Rationalism, the smokescreen is called Sustainability. It should be obvious why a ruled ruin is the end of rationalism, and how long it takes is a R/S ratio in man's sense of reality. It should also be clear that man moving toward the third and fourth generation, is a space-time process where the dynamics of change condition how fast that R/S ratio changes, meaning how fast and how brutal will R's self-made rational hubris become a judicial nemesis.

What all this boils down to, is why it is called Lackland 2.0. The nature of lordship and ownership are the same, also when agenda 2030, the counter-reformatory reset, and the great taking are done. For those that have studied so much of medieval, pre-1517 history that they understand what drove the reformers into action, and are able to recognise the arrogant attitude when papist representatives were sent into any Lackland area to claim what they considered to rightfully be a property owned by the Roman Pontiff, should be able to recognise the role of WEF, EU, UN, BIS, Federal Reserve etc., as papist clearing agencies claiming all collateral for the son of perdition, the Catholic man of sin. Man's universal, or catholic, nature as a member of Christendom, is that he is a follower of the notorious pathology of original sin. Under the reign of antichrist, the vicar of Christ, is all property and property rights considered collateral ready to be claimed under Satan's universal jurisdiction as the entitled lord and property owner of cosmos and the serf class forced to submit. How the great taking of all collateral is outlined makes Lackland 2.0 a characteristic banner over the final threat against humanity. An enormous collection of collateral requires the capacity of a correspondingly enormous administrative apparatus of clerks serving Satan's papal Ponzi scheme. Thus, the final tribulation and deception, is when antichrist's regime tries to arrogate all collateral for restored papal greatness. To experience the final tribulation is therefore to learn that lordship and ownership are the same, in whatever form, and that to be showcased as total redemption vs total deception.

All in all, after reading these introductory notes, history is evidence of human nature. To establish the law is to establish human nature and all the fruitful idiocy and global chaos only fallen Adamkind could do. Endless ruling structures of all possible kind, now with an abnormal plurality of global offices and ambitious office holders somewhere, are all evidence of the structural grips and taxing and enslaving nature of original sin, and the most fantastic part is that all these globalist affairs and offices, coming from the western world, are rooted in the evils of Christendom. Antichrist is the world's greatest deceiver and enslaver, and there is no doubt which geographical and cultural area he would come from and how and by what means he would try to establish his global iron/clay reign.

Now it is probably enough about state idiots and church idiocy . . .

Canonical details in previous notes make the foundation for the inner details dealt with in this and following appendices. Due to the order of things in reformation and salvation, it was necessary first to establish the doctrinal Bible, its canonical structure, and all the underpinning in letters and numbers (2001-21), and doing the overall round-up (2023) before dealing with details of textual and missional corruption. Without the first notes, the following steps to be done from 2025 would never make much sense and would be wasted energy. All the work with textual and missional corruption requires the founding canonical structure, not only to define and explain truth and error but for the readers to know where these things are coming from, and how to separate truth and error into their canonical and non-canonical categories, to know the missional and prophetic purpose behind the Bible providentially given to divide itself by priesthood. Bridge material done in 2023 will be more elaborated with more OT details. From 2025 the originals are more fully integrated and it is time for the readers to do some Hebrew for dummies. Maybe it should be called Hebrew for the priesthood of dummies. Theologians estimated people so intellectually depraved that the masses the Bible was designed to reach would not be trusted with the right to read scripture for themselves. This, vicar position, needs to be interpreted in context for proper understanding, also to understand where the doctrines of men come from, since the only possible explanation is that the theologians regarded biblical competence an intellectual and university-based enterprise, in contrast to G-d's revelation directed towards his people for their education and liberation. G-d's common man would be too dumb, and the only qualified party would be a fraction educated by men. That is the historical position and the theological standard practice when the people were denied access to read scripture for themselves. All interpretation would be filtered through a 5% mindset rebelling against the missional purpose with scripture, hindering G-d's target priesthood from being established. After reading the books, the theologians came to the conclusion and established the hopeless 5% practice that G-d's providential supply of his Word does not match the mission to save the common man from original sin. The way the Bible must divide itself by priesthood is confirmed by history, as a 5% priesthood educated by men in rebellion against providence, and on the other side G-d's target priesthood educated by revelation. It is two scriptural missions and two distinctly different ways of education. Maybe it is time to prove the theologians wrong, and maybe it is time for people to scrutinise the evidence and see for themselves how deluded the theological establishment is, and why the priesthood origin of destiny always were the priesthood origin of depravity. G-d's educational revelation would not benefit any man living in denial of the intended mission, and even worse, blessing would be turned into an organised curse by the 5% priesthood denying the target purpose. It is strictly logical and missional that no classical (5%) preterist would find any room for the predicted seventh millennium. Christ's peace on earth is a 100% priesthood matter antichrist's 5% theologians cannot afford and did never want. Thus, the final moral about the Book of Revelation is that it may just as well be called the Crown of Education. It is a matter of missional purpose and reform whether the Apocalypse is allegorical or historical. Since the theological priesthood of unbelief still lives in denial of the factual dimensions of prophecy and redemptive history, must all apocalyptic interpretation begin with Genesis. Authentic doctrine laid up in canonical layers as precept upon precept and brought forth in the framework of unbelief, must posthumously be interpreted by people revived and becoming 100% body members of Christ. Serpent body formations are educational until that day of the Lord. The point is that scripture is apocalyptic and educational from first book, beginning with the first eschatological cycle and Cain's Eden exit in Gen 4, being repeated in standard-deviation cycles until that is ended and people have been given the eschatological capacity to dethrone and cast out the 5% administration of Satan. Satan's great success in time is continually and in continuation AD to have been able to cast out G-d's people and make Lackland nations instead of casting out the vicar administration of antichrist. Christ's Copernican reformation would be to turn that outcasting principle upside down for people universally to benefit from Christ's redemptive provision. The end value of apocalyptic education is proven in how well people and nations exposed to these standard evils to the door in Rev 20 are able to mirror themselves in Gen 1-4 and in the repeated mosaic pattern established for the redemption of the world. Outcasting of Satan in Rev 20 must reflect the first outcasting of Cain in Gen 4, and manifest the end of all such purgatorial pain inflicted on earth and administered by the priestly order of unbelief willing to kill all remnant dissidents to protect antichrist's temporal regime. In other words, the beginning of the kingdom of G-d and of the body of Christ, is the end of the royal, red-carpet priesthood realm of antichrist. All the way to the end of history, the Apocalypse has no more prophetic strength to bring forth liberation, than the readers are educated to interpret Genesis and the Cainesian nature of beast-marked conditions.

OT and NT notes taken after 2023 are mainly about Codex Satanicus, the perversion of scripture, and how today's theologians, academics, seminarians, and text and translation committees again are involved in the devil's deception business. End-time events make a detailed framework around the ongoing counter-reformation. The twofold Bible makes the two priesthood alternatives how to structure the seventh millennium.

Due diligence, or opening the books, begins with reading Webb's The Great Taking and this April 2025 intro to the Western world's tribulation and Lackland 2.0 potential. Now the meaning of "due diligence" should be known because the confirmation and ending of history is a legal process and legal dimension about the great taking or great release, and needs to be studied accordingly as a court case with binding or loosing effect. Matters of evil and good are legal property matters, and covenants are contractual. In OT/BC form due diligence begins with Dan 7:10. In NT/AD it continues through Rev 5, awaiting the verdict in Rev 20:12. Commitment to due diligence means that you have no reason to be surprised by the final tribulation. Next step in due diligence is the material presented for investigation from this year. It is divided into three August parts with a large number of questions of the following due diligence type you should recognise when you find them: Do you see . . ? Do you agree . . ?

- Appendix B – Contextual background for Appendix C, D, E April 2025
- Appendix C – The Law - Genesis to Deuteronomy August 2025
- Appendix D – History / Scripture - Joshua to Song of S August 2026
- Appendix E – The Prophets - Isaiah to Malachi August 2027

In this way is justice served. You are subpoenaed for the court to sort out a great variety of interests, but still mainly two and twofold. Reformative justice is by the people and for the people. Three online tools that may be useful for KJV/XXX profiling:

Biblegateway
Blue Letter Bible
Textus Receptus Bibles

Blue Letter Bible is probably the best free online program available for parallel reading of multiple versions in KJV/XXX profiling. 4+2 extra April 2025 reference texts have been included here for intro to appendix C, D, E. Extra 1 for reference of P and person, Extra 2 for reference of X and confession, Extra 3 for reference of W and everything else, Extra 4 for reference of L and letters, Extra 5 about Asher and THAT bloodline, and Extra 6 for constitutional considerations.

22 04 2025
BHa

Some general premises and worded concepts for KJV/XXX profiling

First, and as already observed, the repeated disclaimer for The Code must say that none of this is written to please any party. Expect no kind words. The history of Christendom is very much a story of legalistic evil. It is dealt with accordingly and with a vocabulary matching the whorish apocalypse it is. To the Jew first, and also to the Greek, the gospel would be no obtainable reality without first establishing the law.

In the use of certain words in The Code, very little is denominational, the confessional has nothing to do with any historical creed, extra-biblical documents or closet ideas, the Baptist is canonical and is referred to only in that Bn-i-Mn sense, and things reformed must not be mixed up with Calvinism and the Reformed.

Words and phrases related to election and predestination are used in the context the Bible gives them and not in a Calvinist context. Like theology in general, Catholicism and Calvinism are not based on the true Bible but on subjective ideas about the Bible.

Sola scriptura must not be mixed up with denominational ideas. What Martin Luther and other persons before and after him have thought about sola scriptura, have only limited relevance. Such ideas have no more relevance than what Moses may have thought about the Lord's messianic salvation plan. Therefore, and in order for sola scriptura to fulfil its redemptive mission, these two words can have no other meaning than their stand-alone meaning detached from all the theological extra built into them. Scripture alone does not mean scripture + pulpit, it does not mean scripture + councils and creeds, and certainly not scripture + theology, or that the Bible is a theological book. The point is that in order to redeem humanity must the Bible be liberated from all the vicar administrations set up and having a diminishing effect on the Word. Scripture must especially be liberated from theology and from the theological inventions and offices set up to destroy the literal and redemptive meaning of sola scriptura. To have a completed reformation, it is necessary to eliminate all extra-biblical "authority". Theologians are almost allegorical readers and they put their vicar ideology into it, final authority instead of only authority, because the wanted meaning is something historically not covered by the semantic value, positions for themselves according to the historical use of the expression "sola scriptura" as final authority with theological positions where they themselves expect to have a somehow authoritative say in certain scriptural matters, making themselves "protestant" popes, just like today's change and growing counter-reformative mindset manifests the increace of vicar ideas all over the church landscape. It is very simple. A completed reformation is anthropological and requires total liberation of the Bible from all theology and vicar administration. Sola scriptura is therefore read accordingly, as scripture only. It does not mean denial of tradition, but does certainly mean a total denial of the magisterial pulpit. What the epistemological sum of history proves about theology and theologians, makes them disqualified, meaning that theology should never be seen as an authority. Theology has no say in context of the authority of scripture. Scripture says that G-d is one. There is none else (Deu 6:4, Isa 45:5-6, Gal 3:20, 1 Tim 2:5). It was predictable that growing counter-reform would make changes all over the religious landscape until it was proven that the essential apocalypse is a (theological) apostasy where the pulpit establishment disrespects scripture and G-d's missional intent. Denial of sola scriptura is simply to say that the Word is not G-d. Ex cathedra pulpits would be places of popery with editorial autograph rights and "authority" to change times and laws and wear down the remnant as an integrated element becoming the essence of the foretold last tribulation to unfold together with the reset-reformatory agenda 2030. Bottom line regarding all notes in The Code is constitutional for how to read any detail: Sola scriptura is no doctrine, and is not about the interpretation of scripture. Sola scriptura, or sola S jurisdiction, is about G-d's sovereign position and the sovereign position the Bible requires as singular, redemptive authority before any reasonable interpretation can be done. As G-d's judicial sceptre, is sola S exercising absolute authority in order to be able to fulfil its redemptive mission and liberate the world from all the theological busibodies denying sola scriptura and arguing that the masses must submit to extra-biblical flesh in "authority" to interpret the text. It is self-evident that the sola S reformation coming with the power of the printing press would have much greater implications than individual persons like Luther. Sola S authority means total liberation from theology, from all breach positions, and from all pulpits. Sola S words like authority and authoritative, will not be used about anything the theologians have to say about the Bible and what the text says. The basic redemptive principle in sola S jurisdiction is that first principle begins with the rescue from Satan's vicar jurisdiction and from the slaughter ordered by those rejecting sola scriptura. Jesus and Tyndale were slaughtered for the sola S jurisdiction they served. It will be repeated but for now, G-d's saving sola S jurisdiction constitutes itself framed by violence. It was the same immediate jurisdiction every time a new scriptural portion was provided that it constituted itself and its sola S mission given in the historical context it was provided. He sent his Word, first during the 40+ years of liberation by Moses, then the 400+ years of imperial violence surrounding the writing prophets, then AD in the same type violent redemptive framing of Jesus, and during another 40+ years of violence when all the NT books were written, and again in all the violence surrounding the printing press and the reformers, and finally in the growing threat of totalitarian violence and repression in the final tribulation. Every time sola S jurisdiction constitutes itself it is the same condition with redemption from totalitarian repression in general and from Satan's jurisdiction in particular. Therefore must the last tribulation not only repeat the reformative framing in the 1500s, but must conclude on all peak periods of redemptive troubles through history when another constitutional sola S peak was manifested. Each redemptive initiative was based on a corresponding need, and when all prophecy and history in the end means the total constitution of sola S jurisdiction and redemptive epistemology, it is the greatest of all historical needs and redemptive events. As already indicated in the intro text, is the last tribulation with apostate conditions leading to Armageddon, the final confrontation when G-d's sola S jurisdiction goes to war against Satan's vicar jurisdiction to enforce the change of priesthood the theologians always would rebel against. G-d's sovereignty and sola S jurisdiction is the basic redemptive mission constituting and mediating itself in the endlessly recycled historical need to end the repressive dictatorship of theology guys like Tyndale acted against when slaughtered by the ruling priesthood of Satan. In the days of Moses, the prophets, Jesus, the apostles, and in the reformation is the violent framing of G-d's redemptive mission self-constituting and self-evident, with no need to further explain original sin and the liberating nature of G-d's sola S jurisdiction. Moses legislated the framework of original sin pro-Messianic salvation and sola S jurisdiction. AD was first-principle jurisdiction in person. Y2K is sola S jurisdiction in print.

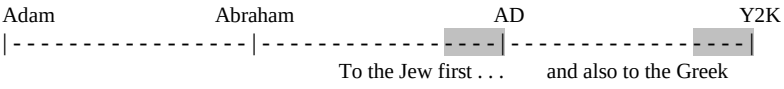
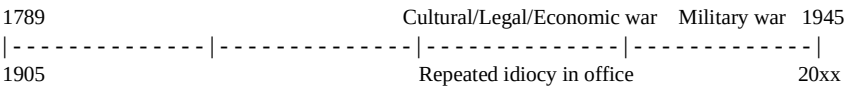
Protestantism or "protestantism" is a word used mainly in the sense of how and why the reformation was initiated as a Protest against all the vain ideas the theologians had come up with through history, especially the ideas used to defend themselves, their pulpit and pulpit regime, with their administrative claws on the Bible. The Protestant reformation needs to be read for what is was, because a protesting reform is the only way any reform would be done. The last tribulation models itself in the same way, as the people under the repressive heel of ruling evildoers finally are finding their common ground to stand united against the structural evils of original sin. No empire was ever set up to serve the people. Antichrist's agenda 2030 is no different but tries to do to the whole world what Satan's vicar establishment had done in Europe up to 1517. Theological establishments do again operate at the centre of this great evil, again being the premise holders of evil, just like the middle ages were developed by repressive regimes. What it means and what it leads to, is the reason for the need to do KJV/XXX profiling to know what takes place and what is changed from the reformation and the apostolic KJV to all the modernist bastards published to dethrone the KJV for counter-reformatory reasons.

For historical overview, Rom 1:16 is required to mediate multiple versions with at least two layers in repeated form: To the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

First the 7-numbered pattern to establish the law (Satan's vicar jurisdiction):



Finally the 4-numbered pattern to establish the law (Satan's vicar jurisdiction):



Again and also in two 4-numbered layers, first how apostate Christendom from Vatican I to World War II hated Herzl's idea and plan for a Jewish homeland, and secondly, how the globalist establishment much more universally from Vatican II to Agenda 2030 hates its own population and the deplorable idea of a national homeland. You need to go back and better understand the first founding 30/80-years war of independence beginning with the struggle for an independent Netherland. G-d's epistemology and a general homeland for all is layered and grafted into the original plan for a Jewish homeland. Whether you call today's popular uprising against Schwab's Fourth Reich a reformative protest or a nationalist protest against the globalists, makes no real difference. In so many ways and on so many levels would historical Christendom be a rebelling obstacle against whatever G-d wanted to do for man. In order to make room for G-d's target priesthood of believers would it have to be proven systematically and epistemologically that the ways of Satan were all the way tied to the empire of the theological priesthood of unbelief.

Some specific premises for how to read Appendix C, D, E etc.

-That no text/translation of the Bible has any other mission than the mindset behind it.

-That the Word for redemptive reasons is the same in person (AD) and in print (Y2K).

-That for those with a vicar agenda is it irrelevant what the Bible says. The clearer the apocalypse is manifested, the clearer is it known that the main point of importance is not what the Bible says, but what we want it to say, and how to use that to serve an agenda.

-That the word "rapture" is used about being (mentally) taken up, not being physically taken away.

-That the word "trinity" is used only as far as it represents real presence in the Word in person and in print, and is reflected in Johannine Comma recording in the true Bible. In other words, real (trinitarian) presence is read as real hypostatic presence.

-That the word "deism" is read as the fallen man's conditional contrast to the trinity, especially as a form of ruling where the theologians and antichrist, the vicar of Christ, have occupied G-d's place and space. Deism rules in absence of the trinity.

-That the two words "apostasy" and "apocalypse" are two words with sola scriptura as their opposite and common reference, together with the two words, "wife" and "whore".

-That sola S synergy and the "synergetic" are words used to reference the energy of the Bible, and must not be mixed with the traditional use of the word, synergism.

-That theology is one form of philosophy, or intellectualism, among other ideological substitutes the fallen man would invent as an unregenerate being. Backsliding transition into former paradigms and stages of Christendom is a converting appeal to the intellect where substitute ideas and vicar gospels come from.

-That quotation marks are used with translated words or phrases only when the translated from is, or is intended to be, the closest English equivalent.

-That the modern concept called recycling, and the word "recycle", are used primarily about generational recirculation with a continually repeated first-generation reset and a continually repeated fourth-generation destruction and new reset. The theologians made themselves ruling dustbin operators. Whatever redemptive or reformative rescue plan the Lord initiated was quickly declared rubbish and scrapped by the establishment. From the first ecumenical council in Nicaea, to the council of Trent, all such repressive dustbin assemblies were scrambled to cut off truthful ideas. They model the evolutionary growth of theologians repeatedly in self-protect mode, projecting their own falsity.

-That one of the main premises for the KJV as providential and apostolic, is to translate the Hebrew BC text in AD context.

-That one of the main premises for the KJV is that it is primarily mental and missional, where the competing modernists typically are exterior, physical, and textual/lexical.

-That the canonical Bible, built on its inner canon, is anthropological and creational, and that the non-canonical, modernist competitors are theological and superficial fragments.

-That the canonical Bible was provided for the eisegetical-anthropological, and that the non-canonical competitors to the KJV today are exegetical-theological versions.

-That the words “conjunctive” and “disjunctive” are not used in the grammatical sense but about sola Vau/And vs sola Vau/But as unifying, or billing of divorce material.

-That based on the Word, being the same in person and print, that the same point makes a division between anthropology and theology, with anthropology and epistemological eisegesis on one side, and theology and exegesis on the other side.

-That one of the main premises for the KJV and the underlying Hebrew (and Greek) is twofold, and how it therefore and accordingly divides itself by priesthood and mission.

-That the Bible eventually divides itself and its twofold BC/AD message by priesthood.

-That scripture under the prophetic guidance of Moses and Isaiah means a layered canon with precept upon precept, and that all layers are not only needed but required for full canonical strength to fulfil its prophetic plan, and therefore that no layer can reasonably be restricted to the past and the people and the time period first addressed.

-That the Bible is about Adam's culture and therefore universal in its address and having something to say to all generations universally about its redemptive plan to save, reform and liberate the world from man's fallen nature and the structural grips of original sin.

-That the sola S reformation and the authorized KJV were providentially brought forth in agreement with the Bible’s redemptive mission and milestones in Daniel's timeline.

-That Daniel's timeline, and the epistemological canon laid out accordingly, is the basic blueprint of history, and therefore the final measuring stick to know truth and error.

-That the sola S sceptre is legal and judicial, and means universal jurisdiction according to the redemptive need to liberate the world from all theological administration and use of scripture as vicar means to rule, and therefore that the twofold Bible means a twofold BC/AD division of authority and jurisdiction divided by priesthood.

-That subsidiary justice means educational and reformative justice imposed for man to be able to benefit from providence. A saved soul is first a proven sinner.

-That the real purgatory, the educational element under Satan as temporal schoolmaster, belongs to the temporal, past and present, beginning with Lamech’s inquisitorial regime in Gen 4, but that Satan’s deceptive liar regime wanted to push that into man’s afterlife not to discover the eternal hell fire and reality on earth in time.

-That the theological-exegetical priesthood of unbelief belongs to the temporal and the judicial in time.

-That, in accordance with the twofold Bible, is the anthropological-eisegetical priesthood of believers T's target and everlasting in scope.

-That to establish the law is not to establish a theological law of Moses but to establish human nature, which is the reason why David said, let me not fall into the hands of man. It is not Moses but human nature that brings the need of salvation.

-That the words, canon, canonical, and non-canonical are used primarily about the inner, twofold structure of the Bible, with named persons and places belonging to this inner realm for internal unity identified by letters and numbers.

-That sola scriptura is mental nutrition, the real-presence carrier of the image of G-d, and the only way to create man and his world in the image of G-d and his kingdom. To be translated into that kingdom is by scriptural nutrition to be imaged into G-d's realm.

-That Johannine Comma recording concerns authenticity and the apostolic authority of the true canon, and how the KJV is marked and witnessed by the testimony of Jesus, the spirit of prophecy, all the way from Genesis to Revelation. Its manipulative competitors are mute with no corresponding ability to communicate G-d's true counsel.

-That text and translation committees and their defending apologists on the background of the twofold also divides apologetics by priesthood. Those defending Codex Satanicus are defending their own 5% ideology and positions. It is in their own words. Authentic apologetics is a defence of the Word and its liberating mission from all the 5% heretics that historically and today use scripture to defend themselves and their own positions. It is a matter of the twofold scripture exercising a self-protective division by priesthood.

-That the only reason for defending the KJV in particular is that it is the one providential Bible given with apostolic authority and the role, protector of the reformation, and it is the one and only Bible with such divine lingua franca authority provided to liberate the international realm the apostate forces today on a primarily "biblical" basis are trying to conquer first in order to subjugate all nations with agenda 2030. The authorized KJV is the only translation having the apostolic authority and the infallible reformative strength required to provide fulfilling of the Bible's one true mission on earth.

-That "means of deception" is used universally in terms of KJV/XXX profiling and in agreement with the second-heaven expression in 2 Thes 2:3 in the KJV, to elaborate the deceptive editorial mission upon Dung hill and the role of Codex Satanicus.

-That some concepts used repeatedly through OT will be labelled, like "under" תחת to be read as Tamar's under-world terror and mafia regime, as an OT forerunner of NT and the depths of Satan in Thyatira. Some words like this must carry an identifying title.

-That KJV/XXX profiling provides a twofold pattern where the KJV follows the inner Hebrew canon of scripture, and modernist and theological versions move around on the surface of the text as uprooted relativists. In this repeated pattern it will be seen that the providential KJV is abstract, principal, and universal, and the modernists are lexical and grammatical and do repeatedly run into the concrete and are trapped by (vicar) ideology, theology and the exegetical. The creational-anthropological KJV is indeed provided for its eisegetical target priesthood. The KJV continues G-d's mental creation from Gen 2 as is indicated in Gen 1. Theological translations are exterior also in and after Gen 2. Some examples have an explicit difference, in other examples the KJV hints to its reconciling purpose by details gone or edited out of sight in the competing translations. The KJV has a window into the original kernel. Modernist translations have no such dimension.

-That vocalisation does not change any fundamental Hebrew root concept, only how it is observed and used to express bias, including the prepositional and presuppositional forms of bias. Hebrew words are vocalised for difference but speak from one root.

-That the authorized King James Bible (KJV) and the Oxford English Dictionary (OED) are providentially designed for the distinct preservation of words. Definite reading of the Bible means that each word holds distinct and definite meaning. Words like Dictionary, diction and contra-diction, and words in general, have no more meaning in the area they are used than they have in the mind of those using them. A dictionary is grouping of all words by the letter, which for the KJV reader means that each word is read with distinct meaning, in contrast to the modernist translations where only sentences and the sentence structure somehow have meaning. Due to the fact that salvation is by Definition, it means that Lady D's office, both in matters of salvation and protective aftercare, means having and holding defining authority, or otherwise being a relativist and woke wilderness with the Deluded self at the centre. According to how a Dictionary is made and grouped by the letter, words like Destiny, Death, Deism, Disposition, Delusion, Deception, Default, Derailing, Discernment, and Diagnostics, are words carrying the unifying intrinsic value which in itself Declares that man is biased and predisposed for bankruptsy. Sinners on autopilot, Cain, the catholic man of sin, would most typically and universally default to pomp and popery because the carnal is the driver of first choice and what man defaults to due to lack of alternatives, or lost awareness of something better. By default is man's biased disposition causing his humanity to be destined for mental, moral, practical, and financial bankruptsy, as is the basis in all Mosaic recycling. And it is of course a part of man's indefinite history that theological Christendom all the way was non-confessional and never able to Deal with it historically in any other form than being a 5% Cainesian ruler and administrator of original sin.

-That as two groups working toward the same goal, the anti-KJV advocates within the "protestant" camp work and pray for unity after the KJV readers have been persuaded to leave the KJV, in the same way the papist apologists work and pray for unity after the protestants more generally have been persuaded to end the reformative protest and leave sola scriptura. These two groups work the same way the Calvinist ESV and the papist NABRE work in joint effort to persuade all to abolish the received text. In a variety of ways, methods, and levels, the pressure against the truth has been increasing.

-That punctuation in the KJV (comma, semicolon, colon, period), says how grammatical parts of a sentence are interrelated, from a short pause (comma) to full stop (period). A semicolon means a longer pause than a comma, and a colon means a longer pause than a semicolon, but none of these three will break the sentence. Only a period means full stop and full grammatical break before the next sentence.

-That the main adversaries used in KJV/XXX profiling, are the NKJV and NASB first, in that order, and thereafter more randomly ordered: The NABRE, ESV, NIV, NLT, CSB, MEV, NRSV-UE, and NET Bible, not necessarily in that order. The English RV (1885), the American ASV (1901), and the RSV (1952) are mainly used for historical reasons and profiling of the steps of generational decay on the road towards Dung hill.

After Gen 1-4 it will be more about profiling, and as will be seen, there is nothing KJV about the NKJV. In the NKJV there is very little left of the nuanced sophistication in the KJV. The NKJV is an abusive identity thief having no comparable quality. That is the same with the NASB accuracy hoax. Trying to beat the KJV by lexical and grammatical accuracy is a complete failure, since the dimensional difference is how the textual and deistic NASB vs the missional and trinitarian KJV live in two different worlds.

-Therefore, and provided for and by apostolic oversight, if there is a mismatch between the canonical sum all scripture gravitates around, BC/AD, and what the gospel writers have recorded about it, interpreted by the reader, then the missional trumps the textual. Where the KJV for apostolic and missional reasons need to strictly follow the Hebrew syntax, or needs to reorder that to make a missional point, it is repeatedly found that the NKJV, NASB etc., run into the concrete where they are trapped by their lexical/textual ideology, and even worse, it is often seen how theological committees favour a counter-reformatory translation which protects the pulpit and the theological establishment, in agreement with the point of division that the KJV is anthropological and creational, and the theological versions limited by their textual ideology about G-d so-called "revealing himself" and having no room for the creational and anthropological and no room for the 100% body of Christ. In its theological form it is all about G-d and the establishment, and how the theologians continue the old pre-1517 church model where the people were seen as deplorable masses never found worthy of real membership. As will be seen, and in whatever form it stands out, the missional will mostly trump the textual. Even a most clearly apostate committee will bend the text in a direction where it serves the missional ideology. That is the same with the KJV when apostolic oversight guides the translation and requires the text to obey its mission. If the textual interpretation or translation does not line up with the intended, then the text is irrelevant. KJV/XXX profiling unveils the translation spectrum with the apostolic KJV and the non-apostolic NABRE as the most conflicting translations locating themselves in their respective, most missional extreme, reformative vs counter-reformative. Modernist translations like the NASB, more neutral and more dedicated to textual accuracy, will have less missional bias and may therefore appear closer to a lexical centre. Missional mercenaries and means of deception, like the NKJV, move readers away from the KJV toward the non-apostolic end of the spectrum.

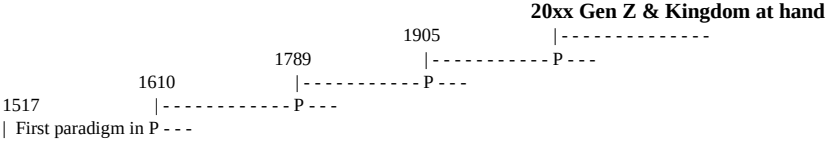
-That Lackland 2.0, after the theologians have perverted the Bible and done the religious reset, means that church-state affairs and ecumenic-economic relations and exploitation seek to restore a world order modelled on the medieval Lackland. Theology is the devil's deceptive ideology, and the perverted Bible the means of deception put in place to serve antichrist's iron/clay dominion. KJV/XXX profiling is done accordingly.

-That some referencing for appendix C, D, E is benchmarking with the book of Psalms, Psa 1, Psa 100, Psa 119, Psa 150.

-That, to complete the standard disclaimer, due diligence is the main advice and purpose.

Extra 1 - For reference of P and person

First reference is about the redemptive P, redemptive accounting in P, the ministry of reconciliation in P, the organic mystery of iniquity in P, how O is an organic organism surrounding P, and P's property phrase, Let my people go. The point is how anointing breaks the yoke, and to breathe some encouragement into Gen Z, because as grandchild generation of the trouble-making 68-generation and the root of evil in the 1960s, Gen Z is the generation anointed to break this old yoke. In P is the ministry of reconciliation and the anointing given to break the yoke beginning with Moses against Pharaoh, prophets against later repressive patriarchs, the reformers against a repressive papal regime, and eventually the people against the western world's repressive Orwellian police state. The point is to understand the problem people always would face during paradigm shifts, the war against a present repressive P while taking the step from the organic swamp into the liberated, next paradigm. It is a new way of life. Gen Z is called to break the repressive yoke of wicked, organic problems in P. For Gen Z it means that Z inheritance = W.



Pharaoh would demand the people's submission and to be accountable to him and his P regime. Later OT prophets would be squeezed by the same yoke of accountability, the reformers would be tried pushed back into the fold and to be accountable to the priestly regime. The Norwegian priests enforcing the conventicle laws would try to force H. N. Hauge to be obedient and accountable to them. T. B. Barratt would face this repressive organic mindset in the next paradigm and again it was a paradigmatic matter of breaking free or submitting to the same repressive opposition trying to force him into submission and to be accountable to the theological mindset of the present paradigm in his day. In the end it is built into Gen Z's nature and calling, why the present leadership regime find them to be a difficult breed, hard to lead, because they are destined to break free from the present repressive paradigm of patriarchal accountability. Man's organic problem in P is that no present patriarchal regime would ever freely let go of its paradigmatic way of thinking and acting. No pastoral pulpit regime would freely let G-d's people go.

Be aware that around 1500 the most aggressive form of the organic patriarchate was the papal regime of unbelief. Now in the other end of Daniel's 70 weeks, some of the most aggressive parties are the latest unbelieving coalitions of impostors, notably all the false prophets and false apostles repressive about the present paradigm and their present ideas of pastoral accountability structures. Because false prophets and false apostles have no ministry of reconciliation, and are not anointed, they will not contribute to break any old repressive yoke of patriarchal accountability around them but will insist on the people to submit and be accountable to continued whoredom in P. While searching after meaning, there is no reason for Gen Z to accept the present yoke of responsibility the powers that be and the parental and grand-parental generations have prepared to force upon them.

Now four areas where P come together in building the so-far greatest roadblock against the truth, all reinforcing each other, all standing together in the way at the door into the seventh millennium, and all to be taken out of the way by homeland entrance.

First, the Bible industry gives its Codex Satanicus contribution to change the course of history by changing the prophetic blueprint for a different millennial outcome. In order to be able to repeat the great success of Levitical continuation AD, the next challenge is how to do the same now at Y2K and again hinder G-d's sola S jurisdiction from being energised as the true foundation of the seventh millennium.

Secondly, and no-less expected, modernist apologists have stepped up the campaign and while putting on a deceptive smile, addressing masses of Protestant brothers and sisters, they will mostly avoid mentioning how disgusted they are with sola scriptura. It is their millennial contribution, while keeping a stiff smile, how to avoid sola S jurisdiction and continue without the truth being reenergised today.

Thirdly, pastors trying to maintain the organic power structures of and around the pulpit is their version and contribution to the same great P roadblock at Y2K, how to maintain an organic status quo in the seventh millennium while fooling people to think that it is the Lord's will of doing his redemptive business the way it seemingly was always done. Fake ministry of reconciliation is a ministry protective of its position and administration.

Fourthly, false prophets have an agenda of their own but also in support of the pastoral power play around the pulpit, and this step is definitive for things being false or true with regards to the ministry of reconciliation. True prophecy was edifying with the principal mission to open up the next paradigm and make the people aware of organic differences and what people needed to do for themselves in order to take the step from the present into the next paradigm. P in principle is how the prophets pointed to P in Christ the cure and root of the new, passing into the paradigm of the Prince of Peace, the foundation for the change of priesthood. From P to P, the prophets made this point that all ministry of reconciliation ends itself when P is done, which also means that a completed paradigm shift was so hard to do because no power of falsity had any interest in P's true paradigm, and were perpetual pretenders and busybodies never getting out of the way, as is typical for Christendom. False prophets have no interest in the next paradigm and next level of reconciliation, and have therefore no interest in the true ministry of reconciliation but will persuade people to stay in the present pastoral playground and accept accountability to the present. False prophets are members of the present, in this world, and they have no edifying contribution to anything beyond the present paradigm, which by definition is the nature of falsity in terms of G-d's ministry of reconciliation. All the false prophets the Bible foretold would come and be a problem in the end may have some difference in their approach to things, but the one unifying element is how they seek to reinforce old power structures against the truth and against the next paradigm. Pseudo-prophets follow the non-canonical trends going anti-reconciliation, which means to promote vicar ideas outside the inner canon of scripture. International coalitions of impostors roaming the world as foretold to be an organic problem (in Matt 24), come with a paradigmatic air of opinion cemented in the present and to reinforce the pastoral power play of the present.

These four aspects come together as the greatest-ever P in person standing in the way and blocking the door of reconciliation and the people's needed homeland entrance into the next, millennial paradigm. P's prophetic order, Let my People go, was never before more loudly trumpeted out of the Bible. To make these four merge in P vs Protest, the reformative challenge in O-P was always Organic and Organisational about Obedience to Person in Position of Power. Pride and prominence would reinforce deadly problems. Now you should get into the canonical precepts stacked up and mediating the problems accumulated at the door into the seventh millennium in the three most major steps. First how P and the Protest began in 1517, then how Napoleon did the world the great service of dethroning the Pope and destroying the Carnal Roman Empire, in the revolutionary era when Hans N. Hauge served Norway's liberation from episcopal harassment done by Satan's conventicle regime. Now finally standing at the door into the next paradigm, it is important to know the possessive nature of P, and the war to Let Go, going back to 1517 and long before that, and it is important to know that lordship and ownership were the same when Abram was called to the rescue of the poor from the possessive royalists in Gen 14, generally about the possessive and predatory nature of P in need of a cure.

Therefore, when all O-P issues of redemption are accumulated at the mixed reformatory and revolutionary door into the millennium, it is vital to know that falsity in general and false prophets in particular belong to this problem in the possessive P on and around the positional power of the pastoral pulpit. What this boils down to is that even if the false prophets had something to say to edify the people about paradigm shifts in general, and the next paradigm in particular, it would never be in their interest because stepping into a paradigm closer to the true P, closer to reconciliation, would be a step away from the pulpit and into a protected place of lesser need for the pulpit and such ministry. Because falsity in general and false prophets in particular are possessive of their own pulpit and ministry position, it would never be in their interest to let go. All the falsity expected to show up in Matt 24, are there as occasion-seekers to exploit G-d's liberating mission, and to turn that into a continued repressive P reinforced to plunder G-d's plan. You need to begin with Satan's murderous medieval apparatus, how the episcopate was willing to do whatever needed to protect their pulpit positions and power over the poor masses of people, providing more medieval evidence that lordship equals ownership, and how that unsolved repressive positional power problem is the same positional pride and predatory problem accumulated until the door into G-d's millennial rest. Pn/Bn, all the patriarchal iniquities upon the children, cover man's whole master paradigm, living in the organic swamp around a predatory, vicar soul in need of a redemptive and reconciling cure in P.

You should be aware of what the Bible industry and Codex Satanicus contribute to, what wicked apologists contribute to as protectors of Codex Satanicus, what the poison of prominence, positional pride, and pastoral pulpits contribute to, and what all falsity in general and false prophets in particular contribute to together with all other repressive forces and apostate elements accumulated before entering the final tribulation, forced to war with the apocalyptic beast as G-d's characteristic war of redemption, reconciliation, and liberation. For today's app-ointed Gen Z, called to break this wicked yoke, it means war against a definitively Wicked generational enemy working to destroy the Word and their W inheritance, to proudly preside with patriarchal pomp over the people's ruin also in the seventh millennium. It should make sense that the father's redemptive accounting in P was balanced in Christ, but would still have to account for all the apostate problems in the apocalypse and the truth challenged by editors messing with the Bible and trying to replace the truth with a substitute blueprint, the published Codex Satanicus. It means the great taking, or liberation from that. It is simple: Reconciliation solves all Problems.

Parametrisation of the tipping point called the Kairos moment is equally simple, having the people's priesthood of believers and true prophecy on one side of the balance, and on the other side the false prophets and the establishment protecting the present. P from the prophets to the Prince of Peace and the change of priesthood, made it definitive what the theologians and their priesthood of unbelief always rebelled against. Parametrisation based on numbers and letters and providentially put in place in the English lingua france and the authorized KJV, the people's Bible, makes it clear why the theologians insist on obedience to the Hebrew and Greek, where these things are not perfected for oversight.

Before ending Extra 1 and going to Extra 2, here is a foretaste of the Socratic nature of things beginning with Appendix C, Aug 2025. Repeated questions will sound like this: Do you see . . ? Do you agree . . . ? You will have to work them out on your own.

As a general foretaste, now with Particular implications, do you see that the possessive and property-oriented ownership nature of the patriarchal P made manifest in the great taking, must mirror itself biographically in the new digital id and CBDC? Characteristic properties of mind are proportional parameters of the soul. Do you agree that the present paradigm and property-oriented nature of (collateral) ownership in their programmable CBDC, is both a paradigmatic and parametric mirror of man's fallen self planning and policing the savage programming of it? In other words, do you see that any paradigm in Pn/Bn would be parametric with partly programmable parameters ruled by those setting the properties of human nature and the lordship and ownership thereof? If savagery is what the planners and rulers want, savagery is what they will get. Do you agree that for man to face G-d's accounting, and be brought to the mirror of self in P, is like Narcissus looking into the watered mirror of self? Do you see why this makes the last tribulation a war against proper accountability and against responsible behaviour in business on earth, especially in the house of G-d and before the mirror of self in P? Next, do you agree that while the rebelling against G-d's paradigm, and finishing the parametric programming of CBDC goes on, as ruling parameters of the great taking, does the western world manifest the definitive parameters of the globalist establishment's moral bankruptsy? Apocalyptic unveiling is simply to discover the biographical nature of apostate parameters mirroring and pointing its finger back on the savage person planning the program and policing the setting of these savage mental parameters in person in charge of the great taking, and as already mentioned several times, it is not only the era of the brute, but the period setting definitive parameters of the brute ruling the present paradigm. To claim all collateral, is to claim ownership and reveal the characteristic lordship behind the present savagery. Ursula the Dragon is both biographical and monumental in her CBDC implementation.

P and Extra 1 is the background for how to read X and Extra 2.

Extra 2 - For reference of X in person and confession

In early history AD, the Greek symbol combined by the two letters, Chi and Rho, is in Latin-English converted to X and P. X became the confessional cure against positional pride, prominence, and the Obsessive-Possessive driver never willing to let go. It is a problem and universal head trauma rooted in original sin as the ruler, and propertied as predatory patriarchal parameters in person in P. First brat among brats, and P's lust after power and preeminence, simply to be worshipped as god in the sanctuary, continued the much older Pn/Bn problem in OT, defined as Pn's iniquity upon Bn.

The point here, made by X, is the legal dimension in G-d's redemptive history, and how legal systems, courts, and the judicial in general is working. When Jesus said that he had to go away in order to give room for the trinity, he said what would be needed in order to enable G-d's sola S jurisdiction, in place from Moses penned the first letter. Scripture is sovereign but only in the absence of the carnal Flesh Almighty. Deism is a substitute form of reign where Flesh Almighty overrules G-d's sola S jurisdiction, always present but muted by a louder and more demanding voice. Accordingly, you have to know the difference from Roman Catholic deism to completed Protest and reform.

If you accept the "authority" of the Roman pontiff, and Rome's papalism, you must also accept society's organised infantilism coming with it. If you accept that the Pope and his Magisterium have seated themselves and their hierarchy of Satan above G-d and the Word of G-d, and makes dogmatic decisions above the Bible and above your head, you must accept giving up your private rights of judgment (interpretation). You need this background to understand the difference from the judicial system in the medieval period ruled by Roman Catholicism, to the later legal and judicial system in the free Protestant world after the 1500s, and even more after 1800, with the separation of powers and the separation of the state from the predatory church.

The point is that the total 24/7 authority the Pope and his Magistrates have over scripture corresponds to the limited authority the judges in the free Protestant court have over the national laws. Even the criminal mind know that he cannot walk into the court room and demand his sola scriptura practice there: I want to read and interpret the law on my own. You judges can have your ideas for yourself. I don't care . . but that does not last long. The law has no authority on its own in a court room. Legal and judicial authority is held by the appointed official judges given power to read, interpret, and judge. Law-abiding citizens in the free, Protestant world, know that the law has no power over them, and the legal is no concern as free persons outside the court room. There is total equality before the law until a crime is committed, but as soon as the criminal party steps into the court room is that equality before the law partly ended. Only the officials have authority with the rights to sentence, but it is limited to real court cases only. In the free world outside the court is the gospel kingdom a reality because G-d's sola S jurisdiction is revived.

In the Roman Catholic world that is not so. Pagan priests have set themselves above G-d and above the Word of G-d, his sola S jurisdiction. They deny Christ and claim universal jurisdiction and a divine right to lawfully harass the people 24/7 as done historically. Roman Catholicism has two papal power pyramids with "authority".

Papist theologians and apologists have formulated the typical lie that tradition, scripture, and magisterium have equal authority but such ideas are just as incompetent as they are hopeless. In the real judicial world there are many lower courts, but only one supreme court. Because of the meaning and nature of the word "authority" there can be no more than one voice when things are settled. That works partly like the court system. If two voices with authority on the same level give conflicting judgments and will not come to an agreement, the matter would have to be taken to the next level of jurisdiction and in some cases to the supreme level. Real supremacy and real authority, with power to settle disputes and end the discussion, can be only one. While telling the old lie that scripture, tradition, and magisterial authority are at the same level, the real practice is just like the court system. If three church authorities operated equally on the same level of authority, then could the Catholic member mass say that we will not believe in your dogmas. We will chose which authority to follow because none of them have the definitive authority and final say. As the Roman Catholics know very well, it does not work like that. The only way for the Roman Catholic Pope to exercise supreme "authority", it must always refer to reality when questions of church authority come up, and can only work the way the Romanist system is set up with a hierarchy above G-d and above the Word of G-d. It works the way papal despotism wants it to work. To accept his dogmatic position above the Bible, is to submit to the jurisdiction that he is the supreme interpreter of the muted Bible having no right to communicate G-d's will on its own. Subject Catholic members have no right to claim any right of private judgment, or to question the higher authority of the Pope as the only person and interpreter of G-d's Word subjugated to the authority of the Roman pontiff. It was never intended that such a despotic system would allow its member mass to grow up and become responsible citizens thinking, acting, and judging for themselves and be members in the free world. A muslim must go to his imam if he needs an answer. A Roman Catholic must go to his priest if he needs an answer.

The best example of totalitarian papal fiat is the so-called Marian dogmas. For dogmas in general, and extra-biblical Roman dogmas in particular, the receiver of the Catholic "deposit of faith" must surrender his free will and free conscience, and blindly accept that it is so because the Pope says so. If a Catholic reads the section in Acts 17 about the Berean practice of due diligence and asks a priest what that means, whether these things were so, the Catholic fiat position is that you should not follow the Bereans but always consult your priest in any matter of faith and moral. By accepting Roman Catholicism's long list of dogmas, they are listed by papal fiat as requirements to be blindly accepted with no right to question them or their origin. If you add the Catholic claim that salvation is available only within Catholicism, you have accepted this totalitarian combination of papalism and organised infantilism where such a universal jurisdiction is a dictatorship of salvation where no reader has any reason for reading his Bible critically as a Berean, and no deeper reason for reading the Bible at all. The more totalitarian fiat, the greater level of infantilism. Whether you surrender your free brain to Schwab's Fourth Reich and accepts their method of artificial brainwashing with the new programmable hybrid solution implemented, or you surrender your brain to be drugged to silence by advanced pharmaceuticals, you should be able to see the connections from restored papal fiat tired of protest, to that being solved by the new total police state. If so, you may never more have any need to think for yourself, but can move around as a toddler in your diapers, shit happens, in their 15-minute kindergarten assisted by surveilling nannies reporting any deviation to the supervisory parental state. You should simply ask yourself: What is the point with Berean due diligence and the goal of becoming grown-up Ephesians if the overall plan is dictatorial papalism and organised infantilism anyway?

This is the context for how to understand the parental police state coming back together with the nature of papalism, despotism, organised infantilism, total control and unlimited digital surveillance. Lackland 2.0 means to release the predatory system with pontifical pride exercising moral supervision of subjugated nations. It is the supreme infantilism the globalist idiots in office all over the western world contribute to and want to present as human rights forced upon the heads of all nations no longer having the constitutional right to protect themselves, their own borders, and legislate their own homeland affairs.

Since the legal court process with judges and jurisdiction so clearly mirrors the Bible as a legal document and dimension, full of X matters in P, it should now have been argued beyond reasonable doubt that the reformative part of G-d's redemptive rescue operation to liberate man living enslaved by sin under the law, would have to begin with shutting down the hierarchy of Satan making room for itself above the law, harassing the people and adding to the taxing burden carried by those under the law. In other words, liberation of man would have to begin with ending the administrative positions and privileges the theological evildoers had arrogated to themselves, at the people's expense, pretending to have a divine right to rule AD like the ordained priesthood BC. Taking Pn's iniquity upon Bn to court, is to illustrate how 5% Lackland establishments in position above the law forced a yoke of injustice upon the neck of the poor masses under the law. For the western world it is primarily about Satan's Vatican harassment bureau within the supra-national realm rejecting the KJV protectorship. There is nothing holy, nothing apostolic, and nothing authentic about the Vatican. These guys did never have any real competence on the Bible. Real competence works like gifts of grace. If G-d ordained, he would also equip. A worm's nest like the Vatican manifests the invalid. No other person through history has been even close to the Pope in how to use pomp and posturing in the cover-up of falsity. It was always a pretentious parade and show to compensate for the lack of authenticity and the lack of true virtue. Antichrist, the vicar of Christ, would always be a pompous opposite to the plain simplicity and divinity of the person of Christ.

The Pope's main problem in communicative action was always that because he does not represent apostolic authority, deism was never backed by the trinity, you will rarely find a written statement of definitive clarity coming from his magistrates. In particular, you will not find written text or translation comparable to the direct language in the apostolic KJV. What you will find is full of long sentences, vague implications, statements with conditional extra and much back and forth for conditional reservation, because to have something in writing with definitive clarity would be a daring experience. Even if they wanted definitive clarity, that would be too risky. So, to avoid being exposed for having no authenticity, they must for self-protective reasons make their relative statements so indefinite, conditional, vague, and reserved that they cannot be argued against because there is nothing of sufficiently definitive value in them to do so.

To codify and decode X in P, or law vs gospel, has so far been how Christendom never came to the knowledge of the truth, never was able to learn anything of real value from history, and never came to the confessional knowlege of X matters in the predatory P. A vital lesson learned is that the predatory and primitive P had no need for Christ and had no other role than power play and administrative dealing with other people's confession. It is simple: P without X is Christ of no effect. Next lesson learned in this matter is that the worst thing the people could do, was to accept submission to the legal yoke-makers in position above the law. Purgatory was helpful for the understanding of redemption and reformation, especially what Pn iniquity upon Bn, and the Bible's yoke of injustice and unequality have to do with the hierarchy of Satan and its priesthood of unbelief, and on what basis the Bible divides itself by priesthood. In the Protestant ending of OT, the last verse in Malachi, is the confessional X lurking in the shadow, loaded with predatory problems to that day. If you check Matt 16:24, you should find the same (reformative) indulgence story in Hedon and Sodom, a part of the shadow story there.

If you conclude X with reading why the KJV uses the twofold word "suffer" instead of giving permission, in verses like Matt 19:14, the twofold sola S sceptre means that the Pn/Bn problem would typically be that the patriarchal P would never suffer the pain of loss and giving the permission Bn needed in order to have the homeland inheritance G-d promised Abraham. Suffering patriarchal loss and pain would permit the children's gain. P is notoriously selfish and predatory until X. It would be a part of man's cosmological head trauma under orginal sin, coming with the first Resh/Rosh headache introduced in Gen 3:15. All roads would temporarily be anti-Copernican and would lead to Rome until a cure against such would be found and accepted among equals.

Now moving into the last tribulation, you should be aware of X in the predatory P, and the implication of this X gauntlet: Pick it up! Just like the 1500s, to finish the unfinished reformation, means going to war against the notoriously rebellious and unrepentant, and like the R/S ratio, the severity of the war with the stone-hearted depends on the rebelling party and to what degree they have reinforced their protective stronghold never to let go. Precept upon precept, laid out in layers of canonical epistemology about X matters in P, makes it impossible to escape the convicting fact that the two cases, People vs Pharaoh, and People vs Pope and Police state, are so far pending cases in the heavenly court, and parts of the still ongoing redemptive war against injustice.

So, therefore this final test of X in P. First, when the temple veil was rent in twain and man's total depravity was reduced to moral depravity, it should explain the extra 2000 years delay from AD to Y2K. Do you see that the extra struggle with bit and bridle in the personal B in this prolonged period corresponds to postponing and procrastination in the corporate P, pushing the unwanted but still inevitable into the future, for reasons already mentioned, since no ruling priest or false prophetic party would have any real interest in the Prince of Peace and his true paradigm? You should realise that all this postponing, and what the economists say is to kick the can down the road, is a part of a much bigger patriarchal problem than reckless government spending and financial Ponzi scheme.

Extra 3 - For reference of W and everything else

Trial is for a purpose. If one half of the picture is about tribulation, then the other half is about revelation. Together with the rest of the April details, the purpose here is to do the groundwork for the KJV/XXX profiling to be done from August 2025 as valid scriptural evidence in court. This overview is a necessity for the overall direction where to go and what to expect with the first bulk of evidence, Aug 2025. Smaller textual and historical details will not be seen for what they are without the bigger picture to guide them and their role. Macro guides the micro, and alpha and omega guide what happened between. The most important in profiling textual evidence is that the false prophet (cf. Rev 16:13) is the modernist Bible industry (Codex Satanicus). Historical Christendom is much more fishy than most will admit.

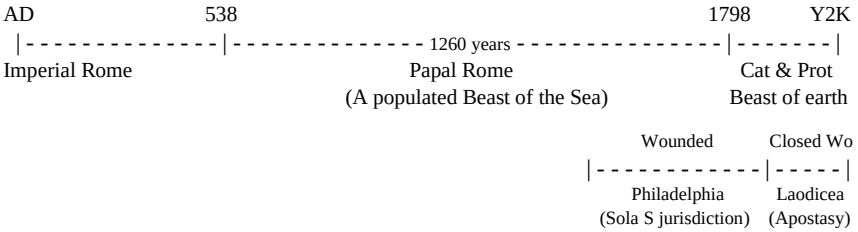
First some terminology, that the whore riding the beast, the beast and the dragon etc., in a variety of forms are different apocalyptic stories of the relation between the religious (church) and the political (state). True prophecy (KJV) and the false (Codex Satanicus) would be cultural guides where to go and what to be produced by these relations.

Beast: The nature of animals as created in Gen 1:24, and the nature of fallen Adamkind and its deistic dominion as a living soul not having the trinitarian spirit, and the basis for apostasy in general and the great falling away, in essence the history of Christendom.

Dragon: About the 5% serpent body anatomy of deism as introduced without evidence in Gen 2, explicitly from Gen 3, explaining the ruling and sneering R and the Resh/Rosh headache introduced in Gen 3:15, pointing toward Rome. All later bruises and wounded conditions and head trauma point back to the 5% root anatomy in Gen 3:14-15.

The false prophet: First, that the 2000 years of history AD is an extension to deism and the imperial beasts BC, and secondly, that Christendom and its beast and dragon would have no other (deistic) foundation than the Bible the theologians perverted. History and the war between truth and falsity was all the way about which prophetic blueprint to be the basis for history, and especially which blueprint should be the door into the seventh millennium. Next challenge for the post-reformation establishment was how to preserve status quo beyond Y2K just like they did AD. Theological Christendom is a yoke-maker and yoke-preserver. For the Codex Satanicus makers the main point is to preserve that yoke and maintain a perverted blueprint for continued business as usual. How history developed AD is blueprinted through Rev 13 based on Gen 3:14-15.

Timeline AD to Y2K with Beast and Dragon (cf. Rev 13:



Now some details related to W and its Hebrew Vau background, since Vau and W cover both the theory and the biographical practice of everything in life. Vau transliterates W, and it works as the worded form of the conjunctive (and disjunctive), and, so, when, but, etc. The ו conjunction is the word most frequently used in the Hebrew text, and it is the champion in billing of written divorce material, and when things are turned around to be means of reunion. W is the literal reason for expressing, the Word of G-d. Next, is about apostate conditions and the wrath of G-d. Scaling of proportions from the Word of G-d as the written Will of G-d, eventually to become the Wrath of G-d, means that Wrath is G-d's will to power taking abolute will-full form in the final showdown with falsity. In its populated 100% form is the rising and protesting body of Christ the energised fruit of the people finally nurtured to be sufficiently infuriated to break the yoke the theologians and their Codex Satanicus makers want to preserve forever. A part of Abram's personal education in Gen 14 is the learning how to rebel as done in Gen 14:1-4 and no longer be enslaved by the social structures of original sin.

Now P from the prophets to the Prince of Peace, from labour and Lackland to Homeland rest. Jesus' first confirming public message to the people after he was done with baptism and trial in Matt 3-4 is that his own gospel message is about his kingdom and homeland mission. His first missional public address in Matt 4:23 is to directly connect the gospel to the kingdom (Abraham's promised homeland). Kingdom and gospel appear together there. As confiming P in person in the prophets, would the Prince of Peace arrive there to say that the kingdom is at hand. Be aware of the implication of true vs false prophecy and what to come with it in terms of trinity vs deism: By their fruits ye shall know them.

From Erasmus to the authorized KJV as apostolic protector of the reformation, the true prophetic energy was that the Homeland was inevitable and to be around 1800, and with the substantive meaning repeated as the revived trinitarian mission of Jesus: G-d with us.

As soon as Codex Satanicus became the substitute, false prophet, would the lost energy be fruitfully proven by deistic conditions around Dung hill. Lackland 2.0 means return to deism, paganism, and the return of the gods. As everything comes crashing down upon the heads around Dung hill, it is to confirm the moral depravity and moral bankruptsy of theological Christendom and its false, Codex Satanicus objective.

Now the social model of the two medieval power pyramids with the religious beast and the political dragon. On the political side it means a full social structure with an emperor and political powers ruling over the serf class in the Roman Empire. On the religious, beast side it is only a commanding episcopal structure where the people would never be worthy members. In Rev 13 the pre-Napoleon, beast of the sea refers to the dominion of papal Rome and its puppet Dragon empire giving its power to Rome. This 5% top-down Ponzi structure is continued by the post-Napoleon, beast of the earth empowered by the false prophet, Codex Satanicus, a power pyramid as modelled on the US One dollar bill.

Next timeline is only the 4x4 matrix with the providential Philadelphia and the apostate Laodicea. Apostasy, secularisation, and commercialisation, also of scripture, means that the beast of the earth would come from a partly different background and would not rise directly out of the same type populated conditions, but is a somehow outsourced version where the prostitute "bible", Codex Satanicus, is its prophetic voice and protector.

1429 1715 Y2K
| - - - - - - - - - Philadelphia - - - - - - - - - | - - - - - - - - - - - Laodicea - - - - - - - - - - - |
True Providence, maker of the Homeland by 1800 (KJV) - - →
| Codex Satanicus, maker of Dung hill

Accordingly, the beast of the earth would begin as a lamb speaking softly as long as the reformation and the KJV legacy lasted, but would in the end roar as a Codex Satanicus Dragon. Rev 13:11 speaks of two biographical forms, first a lamb as the populated form of G-d's providence, and when that faded away, the populated fruit of the false prophet, no-less biographical. Ye shall know them by their fruits. As a shortlived transitional US lamb, it was the equally shortlived pacifist, first-fruit USA some decades from 1789.

Now it is important to know the role of the false prophet, the modernist Bible industry and its Codex Satanicus in text and translations. Its roles are multiple but they serve the same mission, which is to protect the first beast, of the sea, provide a foundation where the second (draconian) beast, of the earth, would give its power to the first beast, and all the world was fooled to wonder after the first beast and worship that beast. After Roman Catholicism and "protestantism" would merge and more generally become the apostate form called Theological Christendom where most theological camps embraced the false prophet, Codex Satanicus, it became a much greater beast built up from the 1800s to the beast of globalism under UN jurisdiction morally supervised by the papal Rome. New "protestant" mercenaries working for the papal Rome would be their moral alibi in the great falling away and deception of the world. While deception increased and the earth beast began to roar and gain characteristic beast-marked strength, would the theologians make their fantasy world, blind to today's fact that beast-marking has been a more than 150 years process leading to the last chapter, the final tribulation. The beast would not appear first there, but the tribulation would be the final fruit of man's war against G-d.

Long before the 1800s, had modernist theologians and text workers argued that they had a much better alternative than G-d's providential Bible, and from the 1800s, they would leave the traditional text and begin the fabrication of their own, and textus receptus (and the KJV) would be declared obsolete. The most important was to have something to use against their primary hate object, the KJV. Reformative strength provided with the KJV had to be replaced with deistic lameness in bastard translations. Codex Satanicus' main operative role as protector of apostasy is to preserve status quo, the worship of the beast, and hinder the reformative action that should have been done while the world has been on the road to hell. A part of the plan was to infiltrate all protestant areas and use Codex Satanicus to make them work for the interests of papal Rome. After some effort, things would drift away and some would begin to wonder after the beast, as predicted. In most cases it worked, and the theologians wondered after the beast as mercenaries leading the masses to be deceived, drift off, fall away, and wonder in the same direction.

Since Gen 3:1 the main objective of the false prophet was to change history's prophetic blueprint, which therefore prompted the need to somehow try to come around the KJV and declare its textual basis obsolete. In this context the false trinity stands out with its deceptive nature with the beastly papal Rome and its roaring Western Dragon protected by the false prophet. In the end the Western earth beast in general and USA in particular have made it evident how the occult and Obelisk-oriented Washington is tied to Europe and the papal Rome. Codex Satanicus is the key to know most other dangerous pieces.

With Codex Satanicus the Bible industry laid the foundation for the apocalyptic beast of the earth, and caused the western world in general and USA in particular, not only to be a great historical liar and exporter of so-called "democracy and freedom", but to become the greatest publisher and exporter of falsity in person and print. So, also the beast of the earth would populate the devil's business. The essential apostasy and apocalypse is about scripture. History is anthropological, it is man's biography, proving its fruitful outcome, becoming the groundwork for how to approach history and its blueprint as a legal matter in court with textual and translational evidence dealt with in KJV/XXX profiling.

Codex Satanicus is a founding driver in ecumenism, how means of deception first would merge Catholicism and Protestantism, then lead to full syncreticm, and eventually, one world religion. The Bible needed to be sufficiently watered down, be in the background and have no authority. Agenda 2030 has this parallel, ECM, their synthetic Greek NT planned to be finished in 2030, essentially a computer-based geek system (CBGM) best suited to nurture the hybrid brains in Schwab's Fourth Reich, everything to be synthetic and artificial. For Luciferian minds as god in their universe, nothing seems impossible.

Now it is time to repeat the mission of Gen Z, anointed to break this particular yoke of the wicked. Z inheritance = W. W makes its own balance with propertied parameters of war- and whore-fare, with the two apocalyptic parties, the Whore and the Wife. Wrath against whoredom in Hedon and Sodom has a specific target in the last tribulation as the central element to be solved in W. Gen Z's appointed calling is related to the Word as their calling to finish the yet unfinished reformation. What Gen Z is called to do, is what the reformers initiated, proven by the KJV as protector of the reformation. The proof of apostolic authority and prophetic authenticity as energising reformer and yoke-breaker, is that the KJV championed the reformative mission of the free world's power-separated state, namely the anointed breaking of the papal yoke the (pre-Napoleon) beast order had over the state until they wrote the US declaration of independence and the constitution, and made that liberating watershed. Before it is too late to avoid the draconian Lackland 2.0, it is the calling of the anointed Gen Z to walk in the footsteps of the reformers and the founding fathers and finish the unfinished reformation and break the yoke that needs to be broken for liberation of the world, and do that while facing Codex Satanicus and the wicked and power-hungry establishment lusting after earthly gain.

For Gen Z and the rest of the world, tribulation means war to elaborate this groundwork, the beast and its timeline, and what Gen 3:14-15 says about Rev 13. Christ came with a sword. It is time to go after the head of the snake and finish the unfinished reformation. It is either or: Cut off that head or become its protective cannon fodder.

Extra 4 - For reference of L and letters

Hebrew for the priesthood of dummies and deplorables. This short intro must begin with the Hebrew consonants, differently grouped than the final English matrix model built by the Latin alphabet and the English language for total oversight. This is only an overview with some indicators. Because this is almost unspeakable and unteachable stuff, it is up to the reader what to pick up from these founding combinations of Hebrew pairs, listed and grouped according to the order of the Hebrew alphabet. Through appendix C, D, E will these things be repeated with some variety of details in combination.

א Aleph	בּ ב Bet/Vet
Aleph vs Beth B is about Baptist Road to Authenticity, or Backsliding and going away from the truth. As chief brutaliser of the Bible, is Bn-i-(Mn) alienated from the truth all the way and (deterministically) led by bit and bridle to the end of his paradigm.

ג Gimel	ד Daleth
D-G, Dan and Gad, G-d and Man, pairs in developing predestination, Grooming for a future of due diligence and Duty.

ה He	ו Vau
About definition and the means of definition. The Hebrew He is about definition, the definite article, directional prophecy and dimensions, and about the feminine Hebrew grammar which directs the Beth B bride into G-d's grammatically suffixed homeland. Vau is about the means of definition. A definitive Hebrew He needs the Vau means of definition for lasting homeland stability. Vau serves two main roles. It is transliterated W and is thereby used to explain why Vau is on top of the list of instances arguing why it is called the Word of G-d. Secondly Vau serves the role of the conjunctive and the disjunctive, already partly explained as the role of sola Vau/And vs Vau/But, where the disjunctive deal-breaker, Bn's bill of divorce, in the end is converted to become means of reunion. Sola Vau/And/But is the redeemer and biographer of Bn and Beth B. He sent Vau for the redemptive rescue of the fallen man.

ז Zain	ח Cheth
About confinement vs doing time. Zain speaks of confinement and lingual, missional, and mental refinement in the male Zakar. Cheth is not only the statutory representative but speaks also of doing time for a correspondingly refined integrity, knowledge, and willingness to do what ought to be done in I and Issachar.

ט Teth	י Jod
Pairs in the scaling of faith and proportions. In the judicial en-mishpat עין משפט is the unfolding and stretching of Teth synonymous with the proportional scaling in Jod. Teth is no more a finished believer than his eyesight as corresponding indicator. One half of this proportional parameter makes Teth the billing pen in the making of written divorce material. The other half is a revealer and a dimensional No to more of such.

כ ך Caph	ל Lamed
About the categorically twofold and paradigmatic C/K, Caph and Lamed, temporal and eternal. In many variant forms, לְךָ, this Hebrew case combines a prepositional Lamed with a grammatical suffix together making a paradigmatic reality where issues of life are played out. One of the root words which has no lexical relation to this first form but still vital for the meaning of the canon, is how a ruling king מלך, kingdom or reign is descriptive for everything royal through Beth B's bloodlined Bible where Abraham was called to begin his redemptive mission work. From faith to faith, or from paradigm to paradigm, the Bible is steadily propelling man into some reign, temporal or eternal. In retrospect the Bible says that everything about dominion and the royal would be made "to him" לְךָ, for him, through and by him, about him, and by faith. The essential master paradigm, from Gen 2 to Rev 20, is a royal dominion of unbelief, bloodshed and brute behaviour required to come to its end before man can have peace on earth. K is a paradigmatic mirror of the temporal Lamed operating as governor and colourer of all things in life under the sun. L is a roadblock hindering the step into the next K.

מ ם Mem	נ ן Nun
About unit and vector of the Mosaic and the Messianic. Gifted ability or cleverness can be used to fulfil the selfish ambition of antichrist's hierarchy, or to serve the egalitarian. Man's N ability and will to power, means the power to enslave or liberate. It is power to bind or loose. N nominates how to identify the canon, where the Nephilim, Naphtali, Nebat, Nazarites and Nicolaitans became the most typical traits as long as man lived in time and was ruled by competition and conquering under the spiritual dominion of the survival of the fittest. Unit-Vector scaling would be living-death issues and much more typically proportions of violence, empires, royal bloodlines and bloodshed, than about serving the truth. M is the unit and N the vector and diagnostic identifier of all things. N embedded in Bn and Beth B is also the diagnostic part which substantiates Bn as the brutaliser of the Bible. N embedded in Bn, and baptised to truth and reality, means that N is the biographical immerser of B. Man is no more baptised to Christ than to self.

ס Samech	ע Ain
About salvation and original sin and first principle S discovery by proper Ain eyesight. Ain and Aleph are the two silent consonants, equally unspeakable as S. First principle S is also the reference for Y's discerning capacity. Justice is the second principle and a replacement judicial form following man's deception and lost capacity to discern time. Failing to find first principle at an early stage, man may be overwhelmed by secondary and subsidiary principles (of violence) longer down the road. It is a sceptred matter of salvation that sola S is a judicial sceptre requiring sovereignty and independence from all ruling flesh. G-d's sola S jurisdiction is a redemptive stature of necessity.

פ ף Pe	צ ץ Tzaddi
About the organic, about propitiation, purgatory, reconciliation, redemptive accounting of pain and pleasure, the unclean Thummim, and the need to distinguish between D. N is the poor Nephesh destined to organic struggle in Pn/Bn's fallen deistic dominion. Tribulation and (self)-imposed purgatorial pain is medicine to end procrastination.

ק Koph	ר Resh
About mixture and ruling, lower and higher urim realms, and the structural version of Aleph authority. This is the other half of Pe-Tzaddi where ruling issues of life will take structural form. Resh is also how to initiate the Bible beginning with its Resh/Rosh fountainhead from start in Gen 1:1. The point from start is how the Resh ר consonant and all later ruling Rosh ראֹשׁ head trauma is built into the first phrase, saying, "In the beginning" בראֹשׁית. Original sin as a universal ruler and structural phenomenon will repeatedly be referred to as ruling Resh/Rosh headache. Original sin makes R "First" in rank of all troubles on earth. R is used to describe the ruling "heads" of the tribes and is indeed first in rank among root causes and malefactor issues from the early Genesis to the end of Malachi. N is the main diagnostic identifier, but R is the main contributor to how the structural problem of original sin got the R prominence to be known. From Gen 3:15 all the world's bruises, wounds, and Resh/Rosh head trauma point to Rome.

שׁ שׂ ש Schin/Sin	ת Tau
As already indicated, justice in robes, or more precisely, veiled justice in robes, is the reason for this talkative pair capturing Tamar's under-world terror and mafia regime, initiated with the first "under" תחת in Gen 1:7. This form of veiled justice is later the reason why things were called Trojan horses, until the depths of Satan in Thyatira are unveiled and T's target is known by T being rent in twain for restored transparency. Whether it is called Trans-Parency or a Break-Through is only lingual bias.

Extra 5 – For reference of Asher and THAT bloodlined canon

First one of the ruling premises for how to read, as already listed: That vocalisation does not change any fundamental Hebrew root concept, only how it is observed and used to express bias, including prepositional and presuppositional forms of bias. Hebrew words are vocalised for a variety of perspectives speaking from one unchanged root, meaning that the variety of recorded senses in the Hebrew dictionary contribute to the lingual and behavioural totality, and to the sum of scripture, just like the KJV and OED combined.

This is a guiding example of G-d's creational anthropology, and how to biographically personify things in the general name, Asher אָשֵׁר about THAT אֲשֶׁר bloodlined canon.

From this general example you have one of the hints how to decode history and all the troubles following the fallen Adamkind in time from Gen 2 to Rev 20. Now the test case about troubles to be referred to repeatedly from Genesis to Malachi while working with KJV/XXX profiling: Do you agree that this essential phrase from Gen 3:13 is the same troubling serpent problem rephrased in Gen 3:14, explaining the dragon and history full of draconian events, wounds, bruises, and ruling head trauma rooted in Gen 3:15?

Gen 3:13 . . . What is this THAT thou hast done? מה־זאת עשׂית

Gen 3:14 . . . Because thou hast done THIS כי עשׂית זאת

An extra key is necessary because the first female (woman) and adjective, "this" זאת in its early form must convert to the male (and malefactor) "this" זה as the perpetrator and problem in Pn/Bn all the way until Golgotha, logged from Gen 5:1 in this form:

Gen 5:1 This is the book of the generations of Adam זה ספר תּוֹלדת אדם

In terms of P from the prophets to the Prince of Peace, and around that, from Pharaoh to the Pope and papal Rome, it could just as well say, This is the book of Problems, or, This is the book of the beast, from Benjamin to the Baptist, and around that, covering all the greater beasts and draconic issues of life from Gen 2 to Rev 20. It is a canonical part of the story, Beth B, that Benjamin became the chief brutaliser of the biographical Bible, and how bit and bridle became a much greater apostate biography under the ruling beast of theological Christendom. First brat among brats, became the Bible's most prominent first brute among brutes. Beth B is what it is for reasons that will be detailed.

If the universal issue – What is this that thou hast done? – did never in some way haunt the mind and memory of the (criminal) malefactor as his working historical rudder into the future, he would soon find himself in more trouble repeating the past.

This is some of the difference in perspective you will have to sort out in order to see the difference between the canonical, anthropological, biographical, and eisegetical Hebrew and KJV on one side, and on the other side the uprooted, non-canonical, theological and exegetical modernists. KJV/XXX profiling means to unveil the modernist reward of whoredom coming with the apostate work of theological Christendom thinking to have better texts and translations than providence, and it is one of the main reasons for saying that there in nothing KJV about the uprooted NKJV and its theological siblings. One of the missional aspects of Codex Satanicus is the reset-reformatory agenda to destroy how the English KJV provides total oversight to the original 66 books. The apostolic KJV is G-d's guardian of the homeland garden the modernists have declared war against. In its apocalyptic context is warfare, whorefare, and surrounding forms of xxxx-mongering, factors decoded in this that context going back to Gen 3:13-15.

One final test case: If you combine the timeline, or beastline, in Extra 3 with Extra 5, do you agree that Lucifer's apostate perfection, and the vicar objective to abort the mission of the true Bible, means that in its final form, when the draconian beast of the earth had managed to successfully claim all collateral for the son of perdition, it would mean that even if the masses had got their "bible" to read for themselves, they would still be more alienated from the truth and the mission of the true Bible than they were as illiterate serfs under the pre-reformation beast of the sea? Before being digitally chained and locked up in their 15-minute concentration camp, your best hope might be that the infantile brats in charge of the city at least had managed to fit their diapers before shit happened. Imagine the picturesque scene.

Extra 6 – Constitutional Considerations

Extra 6 may alternatively be called, How to establish Shit Happens-legislation. Use this as a summary of the April 2025 notes and take into account the most relevant steps:

-How empires were built, and how today's globalist power grab takes place.

-How Webb's The Great Taking describes the ongoing all-out-war against humanity.

-How servile clerks and idiots in office have no other guide than to follow the trends.

-How disasters are partly planned and partly occasions to grab more power.

-How a variety of preparedness acts are parts of the international trends.

-How digital control and surveillance creep in all over.

-How centralisation of everything moves for more power and wealth to fewer people.

-How media have become gatekeepers and cheerleaders of despotism.

-How whitewashing are done to wipe out comparable historical trends.

-How projection works to protect the totalitarian disguised as liberal.

-How idiots in office with despotic ideas have and need supporting activists and a street mob to defend their draconian plans.

-How neofeudal globalists in office serve Schwab's Fourth Reich and how they work to overthrow the constitution.

-How this relates to the final tribulation.

In 2001 did the EU commission establish something they called the EU Civil Protection Mechanism, to be prepared for any disaster. Under the UN umbrella this has been called the Sendai Framework for Disaster Risk Reduction 2015-2030, adopted 2015. Since the Norwegian idiots in office have no other plan than to follow international trends and do what servility requires of an obedient vassal state, this is now one of the latest chapters in the international power grab played out between government and parliament in Oslo. If shit happens, and they will of course arrange that to be an occasion not to be wasted, the latest plan is to have a law which empowers the government with the legal rights to bypass the parliament in case of a "crisis" where they can dictate all persons between 18 and 72 to do whatever the rulers want, where they want it, for any pending risk they are able to articulate. It must be so vague in form that it is unassailable, to cover all possible events, especially if "democracy" is at risk. It is an omen foretelling what they intend to do disguised as a "crisis". Earlier could such legal measures be done by the government only if the parliament was hindered from assembling, but now they want legal power to boss around with the people even if the parliament are present in office. This is one of the draconian agenda 2030 elements in the all-out-war against humanity and what WEF and other international papist/Jesuit/UN-inspired reset-organisations are involved in. If the other globalist preparedness acts and pacts are needed, maybe the infantile UN also should have had a global WAD organisation for All to have their Diapers ready for any possible Shit Happens crisis. Remember how a legislative omen works with the idiots in office, because it may be that shit happens on a regular basis.